21 Killed in Sudanese Riot Opposing Naguib

Police Dodge Steel Spears Of Tribesmen

30,000 Demonstrate As Egyptian Dictator Arrives in Khartoum

KHARTOUM, Sudan (AP) — Police bullets beat off a wild attack on the British governor general's home today by yelling Sudanese tribesmen brandishing steel-tipped spears in a demonstration against visiting Egyptian President Mohamed Naguib.

At least 21 persons were reported killed, including the British police commander, Col. H. S. McGuigan, and six of his men. More than 100 persons were wounded, 30 of them critically. Authoritative sources reported the Sudanese police chief, Brig. Martada el Mahdi, among the victims.

The clash came after more than 30,000 demonstrators agitating for and against Naguib massed in the capital. Members of the pro-independence Umma party, brandishing spears and shouting anti-British and anti-Egyptian slogans, march on the home of Gov. Gen. Sir Robert Howe, where Naguib was being entertained after his arrival by plane for Cairo.

Sudanese police, commanded by British officers, first tossed tear gas grenades at the pressing crowd and then opened fire with their guns when the tribesmen charged with outthrust spears. The seven slain policemen fell before spear charges.

Naguib came here with Egyptian Guidance Minister Siah Salem for the inaugural session today of the Sudan's first Parliament. After the fighting, the governor general announced the ceremony would be postponed indefinitely.

RESUMES AS EGYPT'S PRESIDENT. Gen. Mohamed Naguib, surrounded by his supporters, waves in a victory salute after being reinstated as president of Egypt. Naguib had been deposed last week by the revolution command council led by Col. Gamal Abdel Nasser, as president and premier. Naguib announced that formation of a provisional assembly will begin immediately and that elections will be held soon.

Naguib Strives for Order

Egyptian Leaders Use Force on Mob

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—The Egyptian government strove to keep public order today following the return of ousted President Gen. Mohamed Naguib as chief of state and a new outbreak of mob violence.

All government universities—past hotbeds of mob action—were ordered closed indefinitely after wild demonstrations yesterday, in which police wounded 12 rioters. One police officer also was hit by a shot from a student.

Mobs Cheer Naguib

The police opened fire as disorderly, slogan-shouting crowds of young people surged toward Republican Square from all over the city to cheer Naguib, their popular hero. The display of force nipped the demonstration before it endangered the country's shaky military regime.

Naguib, waving and smiling, appeared on a balcony at the presidential palace and appealed in an impromptu speech for "moderation and forgiveness."

Facing the first antigovernment riots since the army overthrew ex-King Farouk 19 months ago, Naguib and the man who supplanted him briefly last week, Lt. Col. Gamal Abdel Nasser, patched up their differences enough to make a show of unity. The President sat yesterday in a cabinet meeting beside his former deputy. Nasser now holds Naguib's other former posts of prime minister and chairman of the Revolution Council, the ruling body of 12 army officers who planned and directed the coup against Farouk and tried to drop Naguib last week.

Visit Riot Victims

Then the two visited wounded riot victims in a hospital. There demonstrators who had screamed against Nasser a few hours before the shooting kissed him.

Naguib, accompanied by Guidance Minister Salah Salem and several aides and newspapermen, flew to Khartoum this morning to attend the inauguration of the first Sudanese Parliament later in the day. Salem was the President's most outspoken opponent during his three days out of office.

A joint statement yesterday by the cabinet and the Revolution Council said, "Some vicious elements and opportunists tried to exploit this national jibilance (over Naguib's restoration) in achieving their vicious aims."

Syrians Greet New Leader in Wave of Riots

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — Revolt-wracked Syria's army chief of staff sternly warned against further violence and demonstrations today as the capital prepared to greet the nation's new chief of state, Hachem Bey el Attasi.

Though rival factions of army rebels united behind Attassi and ex-dictator Adib Shishekly's cabinet agreed to step out, new rioting broke out in Damascus last night and 13 persons were reported wounded, some seriously.

Troops broke up the demonstrations by firing on the crowds and using tear gas. The capital for the second night was under a curfew.

Damascus was calm again today.

One person was killed and 20 injured Saturday night when pro-Shishekly troops fired on mobs who were demanding the resignation of the ousted dictator's cabinet and Acting President Mahmoun Kuzbari.

Kuzbari, who took over after the army revolt Thursday sent Shishekly fleeing into exile in Saudi Arabi, agreed to step down in favor of Attassi yesterday.

Attassi, 79-year-old political veteran and two-time president, was proclaimed head of the state in a broadcast yesterday by Col. Shawkat Shkeir, the army chief.

Shkeir said he was agreed on at a meeting of political and military leaders Saturday night at Homs, 90 miles north of Damascus. The truce apparently healed the split which had divided rebels after their uprising last week.

Automobile Loaded With Goods Valued At $3,000 Is Stolen

Theft of a 1949 model Packard limousine containing some $3,000 worth of band instruments, clothing and other personal effects was reported to Marion police today by Keith E. Klemme of Toledo.

He said he parked his car in front of Morbitt's Furniture Hospital on N. Main St. about midnight and it was taken between then and 10:05 a.m. today.

Klemme said the car was fully locked and that he still has the keys to it. He reported he and his family are moving from Toledo to Columbus and had stopped overnight with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morbitt of 219 N. Main St.

City police notified the state highway patrol with a description of the car and are continuing their investigation.

Herbert Links Dead Burglar With Murder

Sternbaum Identifies Gloves in Suicide's Coat Pocket as His

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP)—The suicide of an elderly burglar today was injected into the first-degree murder trial of Max Sternbaum.

The case was that of Lewis Morris of Lexington, Ohio, who shot and killed himself when trapped in a Mansfield laundry the night of Dec. 6, 1952. Sternbaum, on trial in the death of his wife, Leah, 31, claims both were attacked by burglars the night of Dec. 3.

Paul J. Martin, identification officer for the Mansfield police department, showed the court a picture taken of Morris at the morgue. The man was wearing khaki pants, brown work shoes and an Army field jacket.

Sternbaum had said one of his attackers wore khakis.

When Morris' clothing was brought into court today, Sternbaum asked his lawyer, Paul M. Herbert, to get a pair of soiled pigskin gloves from the jacket.

He tried them on and Herbert said he told him, "these are mine."

(The reply was unintelligible to court spectators.)

Martin also testified Sternbaum's clothing, worn the night of his wife's death, had been sent to the

Seven Youths Held in Thefts, Break-Ins Here

Juveniles Range From 13 to 16; 4 Are Caught In Act at Theater Door

Seven juveniles were taken into custody over the weekend in a series of break-ins, attempted break-ins, and minor thefts investigated by Marion police.

Four youths, one 15, two 14, and the other 13, were cited to appear before Juvenile Officer Virgil Campbell today after they were caught trying to pry open an exit door at the Palace Theater at 9 p. m. Saturday. They apparently were trying to get in the theater to see the show, police said.

Try at Bowling Alley

Two Marion boys, one 14, and the other 15, and a Marion County boy, 16, were taken into custody Saturday night attempting to break into the Palace Recreation Bowling Alley on W. Center St. The 16-year-old boy told police he previously had broken into the place and stolen about $43 and some cigarets.

Still under investigation is the burglary sometime Sunday night of Bruno's Shell Service at the corner of S. Prospect and W. Church St. Robert Bruno, owner and operator, reported the break-in to police at 7:12 a.m. today.

Station Ransacked

Police found entrance was gained by breaking out a window on the south side of the building next to the Central fire station, reaching through the hole and unlocking the window.

Inside, the cash register was opened and some $6 taken from it. Another container for sales tax money had been opened and 61 cents taken, and a cigaret case

Two Privates Face Quizzing By McCarthy

Senator Resumes His Probe Into Military's Alleged Red-Coddling

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) took up his digging into what he calls Army "coddling of Communists" today, and by contrast with the sometimes one-man hearings of the past there were three other committee members on hand.

It was the first session since McCarthy's sensational public row with Secretary of the Army Robert T. Stevens over alleged abuse of uniformed witnesses.

Closed Door Hearing

McCarthy tapped two witnesses for questioning behind closed doors.

They were Pfc. Marvin Belsky, a doctor at the Army's Murphy General Hospital at Waltham, Mass., and Sid Rubenstein, who told reporters he recently left the Army as a private.

Staff aides to McCarthy's Senate investigations subcommittee said both would be questioned as to whether they had signed loyalty oaths when they entered military service. Refusal to sign such an oath would be reason for denial of a commission.

In addition to McCarthy, committee members attending the session were Sens. Mundt (R-SD), Potter (R-Mich) and McClellan (D-Ark).

No Abuse Assured

Potter said last week Stevens had been given assurances there would be no abuse of army witnesses in the future.

McCarthy has declared he made no concessions as to conduct of hearings in this "truce" with Stevens.

And the senator said yesterday he thought Brig. Gen. Ralph Zwicker—the officer Stevens said suffered humiliating treatment at McCarthy's hands—should be recalled later because the general showed by his testimony he is "either mistaken or guilty of perjury, or the AP story and my investigators were wrong."

McCarthy was referring to an Associated Press account of a report given by the Army Friday on the case of a former major ac-

Crowd Bucking Snow for New Auto Licenses

(A list of deputy registrars in Marion and surrounding counties is on Page 10.)

Despite the snow and cold weather, Marion's Auto License Bureau was jam-packed all morning as 1954 plates went on sale.

"We're just packed in here," Mrs. Velma Koons, bureau clerk, said. "We couldn't get anymore people in here if we tried."

"I don't know if there are any more people here than last year but there are at least as many," Mrs. Koons said. "I couldn't even estimate the number."

Besides a crowded office, a line was strung out about halfway down Court St. to Main St. this morning.

The office will remain open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and from 6 p.m. to 9 today and other weekdays through March.

LEAVES FOR INTER-AMERICAN CONFERENCE. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles talks with representatives from three Latin American countries at Washington's National Airport before boarding a plane for the 10th inter-American conference in Caracas, Venezuela. Dulles is expected to seek adoption of a resolution seeking to unify hemispheric policy against Communists in the Americas. With Dulles are (left to right): Senor Don Roberto M. Heurtematte, ambassador from Panama; Senor Dr. Carlos Perez De La Cova, minister of Venezuela, and Senor Don Manuel Tello, ambassador from Mexico.

U.S. Friendship Pledged

Dulles Reaffirms Strong Ties With Latin America

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—Latin Americans here for the opening of the 10th Inter-American Conference today got word from Secretary of State John Foster Dulles that the United States' program of friendship with them has been the big northern neighbor's "most solid and dependable policy."

"The friendly association of American states is the oldest foreign policy of the United States and it is still our most solid and dependable policy," he said in a brief airport statement on his arrival for the 20-nation conference.

Formalities First

The first day's program of the meeting was confined to formalities—a preliminary organization session in the morning and an afternoon plenary session with Venezuelan President Marcos Perez Jimenez extending the welcome.

The conference is expected to last three to five weeks.

Venezuela took extraordinary security measures to prevent a recurrence of the rioting in which some 1,500 persons were killed during the last Inter-American Conference, in Bogota, Colombia, in April 1948. Communists were blamed for that outbreak.

High, well-guarded barbed wire fences surrounded nearby University City, where the conference activities center. Guards patrolled the airport at Dulles' arrival with his party of 15 experts on Latin America. Perez Jiminez sent his own automobile, which has bullet-resistant windows, for Dulles, but U. S. Ambassador Fletcher Warren said the special protection had not been requested.

U. S. Policy Uncertain

Dulles' statement emphasizing Washington's friendship with the southern neighbors came at a time when many Latin Americans were wondering out loud what policy President Eisenhower's administration would follow in this hemisphere.

Communist infiltration in the Americas is one of the major topics for the conference, but Latin Americans consider economic matters the chief item.

Indian Leader Blasts U.S. Aid Given Pakistan

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru blisteringly rejected President Eisenhower's offer of arms aid for India today and demanded American observers with the U.N. cease-fire team in disputed Kashmir be withdrawn.

By giving military aid to Pakistan, Nehru told his cheering Parliament, the United States had intervened in the Indian-Pakistani fight over the Himalayan state and the American observers therefore "can no longer be regarded by us as neutrals."

Eisenhower's offer of American arms aid "has done less than justice to us or to himself," the premier declared, continuing:

"If we object to military aid being given to Pakistan, we would be hypocrites and unprincipled opportunists to accept it ourself."

Nehru asserted in Parliament such American aid to the other contender for Kashmir "is a form of intervention in the dispute between India and Pakistan" over the Himalayan state.

The American observers, who help supervise the U.N. truce between Indian and Pakistani troops in Kashmir, "can no longer be regarded by us as neutrals in this dispute," the Premier asserted.

At the end of 1953 the United States had 14 observers and headquarters officers on the 48-member U.N. military mission. A U.S. Air Force C47 transport plane and its crew also are available to the U.N. for supply and communications work with the mission.

Opening his review on the aid to Pakistan which he previously had bitterly assailed, Nehru announced what amounted to a rejection of President Eisenhower's offer of similar arms aid for India.

He made public a letter to the U.S. President, replying to Eisenhower's letter last week. In it he said his government would continue to follow its present policies "which are based on a desire for peace." Present Indian policy includes refusal to accept foreign military aid.

Other than this, however, the letter made no specific mention of the U.S. arms offer.

Senate Okays Chief Justice On Voice Vote

No Audible 'No's' Are Heard as Senate Acts To Confirm Warren

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate today confirmed President Eisenhower's appointment of Earl Warren as chief justice of the United States.

The Senate's approval came on a voice vote with no audible "no's."

There was little discussion.

Sen. Knowland (R-Calif) gave the Senate a brief resume of Warren's career and Sen. Kuchel (R-Calif) praised the nominee.

Warren, three times elected governor of California and the GOP vice presidential candidate in 1948, has been serving on the Supreme Court since last October under a recess appointment made while Congress was in adjournment.

Predicts Approval

Republican Leader Knowland of California, first appointed to the Senate by Warren, predicted overwhelming confirmation of the nomination. He said he did not know whether he would ask for a formal roll-call vote.

While confirmation seemed assured, two Southern Democrats on the Senate Judiciary Committee —Eastland of Mississippi and Olin D. Johnston of South Carolina—indicated they intended to vote against the appointment.

Warren's nomination to succeed the late Fred M. Vinson was submitted to the Senate Jan. 1, but it was not until last Wednesday that the Senate Judiciary Committee voted 12-3 to recommend confirmation.

Langer Causes Furor

Sen. Langer (R-ND), chairman of the Judiciary Committee and of a subcommittee that first considered the nomination, stirred up a tempest by airing 10 unchecked and unsworn charges against Warren at a public hearing.

Knowland called the hearing "the most shocking event" he had observed in his eight years in the Senate and subsequently suggested the Senate might well revise its present seniority system of selecting committee chairmen.

Langer challenged him to try to unseat him as chairman of the Judiciary Committee and defended his handling of Warren's nomination, saying he had acted fairly and without undue delay.

Killer of Registrar Hunted in Capital

WASHINGTON (AP)—Washington's entire detective force was marshaled today in a manhunt for a man who knifed to death the registrar of the University of Maryland, Miss Alma Preinkert, 58.

Police said the man, apparently intent on robbery, stabbed Miss Preinkert 10 times yesterday, wounded her sister, Alvina, 60, and then fled.

They said the dead woman evidently surprised the intruder as he rummaged through her bedroom.

Police broadcast a lookout for a Negro about 35 to 40 years old, of stocky build, and wearing a plaid shirt or jacket.

Drifts Block Rural Roads, Others Open

State's Northern Area Hardest Hit as March Comes in 'Like Lion'

March came in "like a lion" today and brought with it the heaviest snowfall of the year in Marion and the surrounding area. It totaled about five inches.

The snow was general throughout the state, with the deepest being reported by cities in the northern section. Cleveland had the most, where up to 13 inches of snow crippled transportation and industry.

Road Crews Busy

Street and road crews worked throughout the night in Marion County and surrounding area in an attempt to make headway against the continuing snow, but some roads drifted shut almost as fast as the plows could clear them.

The snow brought an unexpected holiday for many boys and girls in the county. Six of the 11 county schools were closed. Many county roads were impassable and school buses were unable to get through to pick up the children.

New Bloomington, Prospect, Waldo, Caledonia and Claridon reported classes were held today. Closed were Meeker, Morral, La-Rue, Pleasant, Green Camp and Grand Prairie.

Marion city schools had classes as usual this morning.

Crawford Schools Closed

In Crawford County, half of the schools were closed. Those unable to have classes were Holmes, Liberty, Mt. Zion, New Washington, Tiro and Whetstone, while open as usual for classes were Chatfield, Leesville, Lykens, North Robinson and Sulphur Springs.

In the area, Marseilles, Nevada and Harpster schools also were closed.

Rain, which began early yesterday morning and continued at intervals, changed to snow about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. According to local weather observers, the snow fell heavily throughout the night until 5 o'clock this morning when it decreased to only a light fall. The rainfall measured two-tenths of an inch.

City Crews Called Out

Drifts as deep as two and one-half to three feet were reported in many places, especially on side roads in the country.

Streets in Marion became slippery about 9:30 last night, and about 2:15 this morning city crews were called out, cleaning the main streets with snow plows.

Council Group To Hear Plan For Bus Firm

Proposition of two Dayton men seeking the Marion city bus franchise will be heard by members of the City Council utilities committee at a special meeting tonight at 7:30 at city hall.

Rolland E. St. Johns and Olin Wichael, owners and operators of the Dayton Transit Co. and four other bus companies, are scheduled to give the committee their plans for restoring bus service if granted the franchise.

Service ceased in Marion last Wednesday night after the Marion Transit Co. decided to quit business in the face of mounting losses.

Wichael appeared before a special meeting of Council Saturday morning and said he and his partner were interested in starting a new bus company in Marion. He said they would make a definite proposition after he had had more time to study the city and determine what service, fares and routes would be appropriate and whether or not they would be reasonably certain of success.

The special meeting of the committee was called at the close of the Saturday morning session and in addition to the committee, Chairman Robert G. Haldeman invited any other councilman or other interested persons to attend. The meeting will be held in the Council chambers in the Municipal Court room.

Airliner Wreck Called 'Mess'

Searching Party Arrives At Wyoming Crash Scene

NEWCASTLE, Wyo. (AP) — A ground party today found the shattered wreckage of an airliner which apparently crashed in a snowstorm and killed nine persons.

In the first brief report from the scene by radio, State Highway Patrolman George Wilcox told the sheriff's office here: "It's a mess."

Details were not immedaitely available.

The Western Air Lines Convair, en route from the West coast to Minneapolis, disappeared Friday with six passengers and three crew members.

It was discovered from the air by Bill Spear, Western's regional pilot from Denver, and Bert Mooney of Salt Lake City, chief pilot for the airline.

Explosion Kills Five, Hurts 20 In Philadelphia

Three Children Die In Unexplained Blast At Luncheon Counter

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Five persons, including three children in a neighborhood luncheonette, were killed last night when a violent explosion destroyed two buildings in a crowded section of South Philadelphia.

A 17-year-old girl, Ruby Mosley, trapped for six hours in a public telephone booth under the mountain of rubble, escaped unharmed. Twenty others, including four firemen, were injured.

Origin Undetermined

The blast, of undetermined origin, occurred on a quiet Sunday night in one of the most densely populated areas of the city. Deputy Fire Chief George E. Hink said it was "amazing" that the death toll was not higher.

The roofs of two adjoining three-story brick buildings were lifted into the air, turned halfway around and dropped on the rear of the structures. Not a wall was standing when firemen arrived and flames licked at the pile of debris. Some 500 persons were routed from their homes and Red Cross authorities estimated 50 families were sheltered for the night.

The buildings housed the luncheonette and an adjoining jewelry store. The upper stories contained apartments.

Proprietor Killed

The victims included the proprietor of the luncheonette, Isadore Pearlman, 50, and three young customers. The bodies of Bruce Schwartz, 9, and Salvatore Balladino, 6, were found under the soda fountain. The body of 15-year-old Marie Marone was uncovered nearby.

The fifth victim was Mrs. Fanny Rudolph, 45, who lived in an apartment above the jewelry store. Her husband Samuel, 45, suffered cuts and bruises.

The impact of the explosion bent an electric sign across the street into a U-shape. Windows for blocks were shattered.

Several neighbors told police they noticed the odor of gas before the blast.

Describes Experiences

The fire marshal's office began an investigation today.

The son of the luncheonette proprietor, 23-year-old Samuel Pearlman, a premedical student, described the experience as "a horrible nightmare." He and his 54-year-old mother fell from upper stories but were not seriously injured.

"I felt myself falling through the floor, down through the total darkness with a crash of sound," he said. "I must have blacked out for a few seconds for when I came to, I was on the first floor buried in plaster."

The area of the blast—a part of old Philadelphia—is about three miles from the center of the city and a mile from the U. S. naval base.

10 Drivers Stopped By Marion Police

Ten weekend traffic arrests were reported today by Marion police.

Scheduled to appear in Municipal Court today were Daniel F. Scott, 61, 731 E. Center St., speeding; Arlo C. Volkmer, 27, near Bucyrus, reckless operation; Albert S. Blood Program Is Important Service of Red Cross

Helps Save Lives of Sick In Local Hospitals or Wounded Overseas

This is the first in a series of articles describing services of the American Red Cross, which this month is conducting its annual fund campaign in many communities. Since the Red Cross in Marion conducts its campaign as part of the United Appeals, no drive is scheduled here, though contributions will be welcomed.

It just takes an hour and does not cost you a cent but it may save someone's life.

That's how the Red Cross describes the blood collection program it operates as one of its many services to the community.

The American Red Cross blood donation campaign is in full swing with the next bloodmobile visit to Marion scheduled for March 10 and 11 at the Presbyterian Church. Marion's quota for each day, which was 100 pints, now is 150.

LET'S TAKE A trip through the blood center, pretending you were donating a pint of blood. After making an appointment, the Red Cross advises you not to eat fatty foods for at least six hours before donating.

When you arrive at the center, a Gray Lady meets you, checks your appointment and file and sends you to the nurses' aide. The nurses' aides, all trained volunteer workers, take your temperature, pulse and weight.

Next a registered nurse checks your medical history. She tests your blood, takes your blood pressure and asks questions about your health. If there is any question as to your health, the nurse sends for a doctor.

THEN YOU ARE sent to the donation room where a Gray Lady gives you a glass of water. You lie down on the cot and give the pint of blood. A doctor always is present in the center when blood is given.

You rest up in the recovery room, get coffee and a snack in the canteen and it's all over. Just an hour for the whole thing.

Blood collected here is put on ice and is sent to the Columbus Regional Center, one of 45 in the U.S., where it is processed.

Last year 1204 of the 1654 pints given here were used at the City Hospital. The rest went to servicemen, to civil defense and for gamma globulin to help in combating paralysis resulting from polio.

—:—

THE BLOODMOBILE VISITS Marion about 26 times a year. Present plans are for two-day visits every two months. The local chapter has designated March 11, the second day this month, as Rural Donation day.

Age limits for giving blood are 18 and 60. People between 18 and 21 must have parental consent. The limit for pints given each year by one person is eight.

Helping in the blood donation program is just one of many services performed by volunteer workers. These trained, yet unpaid workers also entertain servicemen, help the aged, sick and mentally ill, and work with children.

Last year more than 15,100,000 hours of volunteer hours were given in the U.S. In Marion, volunteers can serve in six areas: canteen, Gray Lady, social welfare aide, staff aide and volunteer nurse's aide.

A PAID STAFF of three plus 141 volunteer workers comprise Marion's Red Cross organization. The national ratio of volunteer workers to paid workers is 100 to 1.

School children, too, help in Red Cross. The school children's work includes making favors for servicemen, and children and adults in hospitals.

Along with activities in the U.S., the Junior Red Cross has a yearly international project. Last year, over 500,000 gift boxes containing personal, health and educational articles were sent to homeless and displaced persons in 29 countries.

Local members provided 4,310 favors for the city hospital, the Waddell Ladies' Home, the County Home and other rest homes. They also made ash trays, book marks, decorated paper napkins, prepared an international album, and sent $118.18 to the National Children's Fund. Mrs. Frank Kochensperger is chairman of the Junior Red Cross.

opened and some $35 and an undetermined quantity of cigarets taken. Also broken into was a peanut vending machine and an attempt was made to pry open a soft drink machine.

At 10:21 p.m. Sunday, Isaiah Millington of Dennison Ave., called police and reported his car had been pilfered while it was parked on the city-owned parking lot at S. Prospect and W. Church Sts. at between 9 and 10:15 p.m. Sunday. He said a pair of gloves and a bumper jack with a total value of $6.50 were taken.

Theft of six chickens from a henhouse at the rear of her residence was reported to police by Mary Dean of 410 N. State St. at 8:59 a.m. Sunday. She reported the lock from the hen-house door was also stolen. Total value of the chickens and the lock was $12, she told police.

Crash

Flying only 30 feet off the ground, they identified the craft from colored fragments — the largest appearing no more than three feet in diameter, Tom Lane, WAL sales manager at Rapid City, said.

Mooney and Spear observed no sign of life in the vicinity.

The downed ship was discovered yesterday by Bill Spear, Western's regional pilot from Denver, and Bert Mooney of Salt Lake City, chief pilot for the airline.

Mooney and Spear told WAL officials at Rapid City the wreckage definitely was that of the missing Los Angeles-to-Minneapolis craft. They observed no sign of life.

The two said the plane cut a swath about 75 feet wide and 500 feet long in the snow. The ship was "pretty well broken up," they said.

Burglars Ransack Courthouse Offices In Madison County

LONDON, Ohio (AP)—Offices in the Madison County Courthouse were left littered with broken desks, safes and official papers after burglars ransacked the building during the weekend, Sheriff Harold Bidwell reported.

He said the thieves apparently centered their efforts on the auto registration office. Forms and office equipment was scattered about and desks and a cabinet were broken. Between $200 and $300 was stolen from a desk in the clerk of court's office.

Also ransacked were the offices of Judge James Bell and the auditor's office. Hinge pins were removed from a safe in the auditor's office but it was not opened.

Six Accidents Listed in City, Marion County

Two Injured When Car Leaves Street; Others Called Minor

Two persons were slightly injured and a driver was charged with hit-skip driving in two of five minor traffic accidents reported today by Marion police. State patrolmen reported one accident in the county, which resulted in injuries to three persons.

Jerry Dale Lee, 17, of 524 Uncapher Ave. and Miss Marjorie A. Umbaugh of 601 Summit St. received slight bruises in an accident at 10 p.m. Saturday at Mt. Vernon Ave. and S. Greenwood St.

Lee was driving west on Mt. Vernon Ave. and told police he lost control of the car. It went over the curb on the south side of the street and sideswiped a tree before stopping. Neither he nor Miss Umbaugh required medical treatment.

Carl F. Rinnert of 741 N. Main St. was charged with leaving the scene of an accident after his car struck a car parked in front of his residence and owned by Wesley Minnick of 414 E. Fairgrolund St. at 11:14 p.m. Saturday.

A passerby who saw the accident told police the license number of the hit-skip car and they arrested Rinnert at 12:54 a.m. Sunday. In Municipal Court this morning he pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $100 and costs and his driver's license was revoked for three years.

A traffic ticket for blocking the street was issued to Virtue Miller of 538 Silver St. after his car was struck by a car driven by Belford Hook, 40, of Lindberg Ave. at Leader and Silver St. at 6:45 a.m. today. Police said Miller's car had broken down and was left in the middle of the street.

Other two accidents in the city were of the fender bender type. Cars driven by Joseph M. Lavenia, 18, of 585 Sugar St. and Howard E. Wilson, 33, of 326 Cherry St. were involved in a collision at Lincoln and Wilson Aves. at 3:09 p.m. Sunday.

A car driven by Richard D. Heckman, 19, of 603 Olney Ave. was involved in a mishap with another car the owner of which was not identified by police. They reported Heckman's car struck the rear of the other car in front of 129 S. Main St. at 1:26 p.m. Sunday.

3 Injured in Collision

A young couple and their two-year-old daughter were injured slightly in a county accident reported today by the Marion post of the state highway patrol.

Cars driven by William Serraino, 25, of Columbus, and Charles I. Smithson, 73, of 169 W. Center St. collided at the intersection of Routes 98 and 169 at 3:30 p.m. Sunday.

Serraino and his wife, Barbara, 24, suffered bruised knees. Their daughter, Marilyn, sustained a cut under her right eye. They were taken to Marion City Hospital, treated and released.

State patrolmen reported moderate damage to both cars. Smithson was given a citation for failing to yield the right away.

World's Population Expected To Hit 4 Billion in 50 Years

WASHINGTON (UP) — The world's population is growing at an unprecedented rate and may top the four billion mark by the year 2000, according to the Population Reference Bureau.

The bureau, a private research organization, estimates that there are now 2,500,000,000 human beings on this planet, and that about half of them are chronically underfed.

The present rate of population growth, slightly more than one percent a year, means 70,000 more mouths to feed every day.

The earth's population climbed slowly until about 1650. Then followed a period of discovery—a new continent to the west, Galileo's compound microscope, Harvey's discovery of the blood circulation.

Medical research and the development of vaccines and bacteria control improved health and food, and population jumped from an estimated 500,000,000 in 1650 to about five times that today.

Many heavily populated places such as China, India and Africa, have only recently begun to feel the benefits of modern medicine, and the bureau believes the growth of population will accelerate in the next few decades.

In an attempt to cope with the problem of providing adequate food for this swelling population, scientists have experimented in recent years with the possibility of producing synthetic foods from algae, plankton and chemical substances.

Experiments with the algae show that this green "pond scum" can produce 15 to 20 tons of dry matter, having a 50 per cent protein content, per acre of water.

It is also possible to add to the world's larder by increased agricultural production and more effective distribution.

Morrow Evangelist

REV. HARRY G. DEEDS of Findlay will be the evangelist for a series of special services at the Fairview EUB Church in Morrow County beginning Tuesday night. Nightly services will be at 8 through March 14, the pastor, Rev. Burton L. Crosby of Cardington, announced. The church is located on Route 746, three miles south of Route 529. Rev. Deeds served as pastor of Greenwood EUB Church in Marion about 20 years ago. He is now a full-time evangelist of the Ohio Sandusky Conference of the denomination. Special music and a program for the children is planned for each night of the campaign.

McCarthy

cused by McCarthy of subversive ties.

The truce announced five days ago rested on a memorandum by which Stevens agreed McCarthy's Senate investigations subcommittee might question Zwicker and other Army witnesses whose testimony it had been seeking. Earlier Stevens had directed Zwicker and another general not to heed a subcommittee subpoena.

The agreement was almost universally regarded as a surrender to McCarthy. Stevens later sought to counter this impression with a statement, publicly backed by President Eisenhower, that he had received assurances against browbeating of Army witnesses in the future and would act to protect them if need be.

Denied by McCarthy

McCarthy flatly denied that the assurances Stevens mentioned had been given at the truce meeting.

There the matter has rested until today's call for the testimony of two privates, identified in advance as Marvin Belsky, a doctor in the Army's Murphy General Hospital at Waltham, Mass., and Sid Rubenstein of Ft. Banks, Winthrop, Mass.

Subcommittee members were advised the witnesses were to be questioned as to whether they had refused to sign loyalty oaths when they entered the Army.

McCarthy's new remarks about Zwicker came in connection with a report given by the Army Friday on its commissioning, calling to active duty, promoting and honorably discharging former Maj. Irving Peress a New York dentist who declined on constitutional grounds to answer questions about membership in subversive organizations.

Says Charges Substantiated

McCarthy said the Pentagon report backed up his investigators' findings that the honorable discharge was ordered after McCarthy demanded Peress be court-martialed and dishonorably discharged.

The senator said Zwicker had testified the discharge was ordered before any public announcement about Peress.

McCarthy said there was a "direct conflict" between the two versions and that Zwicker should be recalled for more questioning, although the general might have been "honestly mistaken."

He said he would continue to honor an agreement not to requestion Zwicker until Sen. Symington (D-Mo), a subcommittee member, returns from Europe in about 10 days.

McCarthy, speaking to newsmen in New York, said he plans to send a "friendly letter" to Stevens about the Pentagon report.

Peress, meanwhile, said in New York "Fascist hoodlums" hurled rocks through his windows, endangering his children.

He has termed McCarthy's charges against him "nonsense."

Last night Sen. Monroney (D-Okla) said that if the services are to have career men, "we can't have another example of the incident that happened before Sen. McCarthy's committee where a heroic general was pilloried."

Accused Killer Of 2 Truckers Goes on Trial

John Wesley Wable Pleads Innocent in Pennsylvania Court

GREENSBURG, Pa. (AP) — John Wesley Wable, accused of slaying two sleeping truck drivers on the Pennsylvania Turnpike, pleaded innocent today at the opening of his murder trial in Westmoreland County court.

Wable entered the plea a few minutes after Judge Edward G. Bauer turned down a defense motion to postpone the trial.

Counsel for the 24-year-old Wable asked the court for a continuance, on grounds of inflamatory and prejudicial newspaper articles and photographs.

Judge Bauer immediately ordered both sides to start picking the jury. Earlier, the judge said he will hold night sessions to speed up the trial.

Atty. A. C. Scales said the petition for postponement was based on photographs and articles that appeared in Greensburg and Latrobe papers last Friday and Saturday. He gave no details.

Dist. Atty. L. Alexander Sculco said the state will ask for a first degree murder verdict and a death sentence. State police say Wable signed a statement implicating himself in the shootings but denied he was the triggerman.

Wable has been held without bond in Westmoreland County jail since last October when he was returned here from New Mexico. Police arrested him in connection with a service station holdup and later recognized him as a man wanted in Pennsylvania.

Wable is on trial only for the murder of Harry F. Pitts, 39, of Bowling Green, Va. He also is charged with slaying Lester B. Woodward, 39, of Duncannon, Pa.

State police said both men were shot with the same gun—A revolver they said eventually was tracked to Wable.

about 20 men, undertook their snow plowing task at 7 this morning, having in operation six truck plows and two large maintainers. Two trucks also were in use to spread cinders at railroad crossings and other dangerous road crossings. The superintendent said it is hoped all roads will be cleared by tonight.

The state highway department had men working early last night salting the highways. They continued this until 11 a.m. The state crews had seven snow plows in operation all night. Roads were reported to be quite slippery and three salt trucks were in use this morning. About 23 men were on the job during the night.

To Continue Today

Snow was expected to continue throughout today and the forecast for tonight is rather cloudy with a low expected to be about 24. Tuesday will be cloudy and moderately cold, followed by light snow.

In Cleveland, city business struggled to maintain some semblance of their normal schedules as stalled autos blocked many intersections and corners, The Associated Press reported. The usual Monday morning bustle of the city was slowed to a chilly murmur. All Cleveland schools were closed.

Cleveland Hopkins Airport was closed because of snow on the runways.

About six inches of snow fell in Summit County. Streets in downtown Akron were clear and the city schools were open. But all rural schools were closed.

The storm seemed to pick up momentum rapidly last night. Several hours before midnight, the Weather Bureau in Cleveland issued a warning, predicting five inches by noon. This amount was almost tripled.

Other cities reporting snow were Toledo, Mansfield, Findlay, Columbus, Zanesville, Dayton, Cincinnati and several in West Virginia.

Mile-Deep Mine Shaft Goes Deeper for Gold

LEAD, S. D. (UP) — The mile-deep Homestake gold mine is going to become even deeper.

Officials of the nation's largest gold mine said the main shaft will be deepened below the 5,000-foot level to follow the Homestake ore body which produced around $15,000,000 a year in gold.

The deepening will cost about $500,000.

Man Enters Guilty Plea To Embezzling Charge

Robert Russell, promotional man for a mystery show who was indicted by the grand jury for embezzlement, entered a guilty plea this morning before Common Pleas Judge Paul D. Smith.

Sentencing was deferred awaiting further information on his background. Russell was represented by F. L. Mitchell, his court-appointed attorney.

Warren Case

By George Sokolsky

Although Chief Justice Earl Warren has been confirmed by the Senate Judiciary Committee, which assures confirmation by the Senate perhaps before this is printed, there is a side to the controversy that I feel needs discussion, namely, that the Communist arrow was shot at Earl Warren, hit or miss, by unnamed persons. The indiscriminate use of that paint-brush often by self-serving persons is doing the cause of anti-Communism great harm.

SOKOLSKY

What is a Communist?

1. A Communist is a member of the Communist party of the United States or its numerous front organizations;

2. One may be regarded as still a Communist who once joined the party or its front organizations but who has taken no overt steps to disassociate himself from the affiliation. Ample means exist to establish bona fide disassociation;

3. A person may be regarded as pro-Communist who prefers the Marxist-Leninist concept of life and so proclaims;

4. A person may be regarded as pro-Communist who has for any reason whatsoever acted as an agent of the Soviet Universal State in any country but particularly in the United States even if he never joined the Communist party.

THESE DEFINITIONS I believe to be all-inclusive. When they are expanded to include persons with whom any of us disagree on particular issues, they become ridiculous.

To say that Earl Warren is a Communist or supported Communists is without reason. It is such absurd positions that have resulted in the equally untenable attitude of the radio and television industries which define a controversial person as anyone about whom someone has said something disagreeable concerning his political views.

When men and women are not permitted to work because of an uninvestigated, unanswered reference to an individual, then a grave injustice can be done. Every human being must have an opportunity to defend himself against charges of any kind in the United States.

Walter Winchell once invented the word, "hatriot," and this tour de force represents a type of person who does not study, does not analyze, does not establish a premise but emotes with hatred.

IT IS DANGEROUS in any fight, in any movement togive the enemy a propagandistic opportunity to hit back because of a careless array of unchecked data or because of uninvestigated descriptions of persons, some of whom may even be on your side but utilize different methods.

The McCarthy and Jenner committees have been extraordinarily careful not to be caught in that trap.

During the past three or four years, many persons have pronounced themselves as anti-Communists who were not active before in any known anti-Communist work, and who by their attitudes prove that they do not know the subject.

These bandwagon hoppers who often have personal axes to grind are doing great mischief, first because often their accusations are based on nothing but a difference of opinion, and secondly because they often use accusations to hurt a personal or political opponent.

I do not find that serious-minded anti-Communists, men and women who have been in this fight, some of them as far back as 1917, take a "hatriot" attitude.

MANY OF THEM labor day and night to redeem ex-Communists, to make their talents available for the great struggle against the Kremlin. Many of them sacrifice time and money and risk themselves to help a former party worker over the emotional threshold so that he will testify to the FBI or to a congressional committee.

Often these Johnny-come-latelies by their ignorance and lack of prudence undo this arduous and devoted work by a public attack just at the moment when something important is being achieved.

Such people, of course, have a right to their opinions and to their methods, but this much is true: They have thrived in their "hatriotism" only because the older fighters in the cause of anti-Communism have been silent concerning some of the mistaken activities of the newcomers.

As the cause of anti-Communism is being damaged by the activities of the newcomers, particularly when they call Chief Justice Earl Warren a Communist, when it is so evident that there is a public revulsion against such uninhibited accusations, the time must come when the older and long-active anti-Communists will have to speak out for a more correct appraisal of the enemy and of the battle against him.

Morrow Auto Mishaps Listed

2 Collisions Reported By Highway Patrolmen

No one was injured in two Morrow County accidents reported today by the Marion post of the state highway patrol.

At 12:30 a.m. Sunday, cars driven by Ernest E. Bowersmith, 17, of near Marengo, and Albert N. High, 21, of near Cardington, sideswiped on Route 746, near the intersection with Route 42. Patrolmen reported minor damage to both cars. Bowersmith was given a citation to appear at a later date before Juvenile Judge John McMillan of Morrow County for failing to transfer his license.

In the second accident, cars driven by Marlene LaRue of near Galion and Harold D. Wise, 39, of North Industry (Stark County), sideswiped one mile west of the Crawford County line. Time of the mishap was 6:50 p.m. yesterday. Both cars were moderately damaged, patrolmen said.

Finance Company Manager Admits He Stole $14,000

CLEVELAND (AP) — Police today said a 22-year-old finance company manager had admitted stealing $14,000 from another loan company.

Capt. Ernest A. Hauschild identified the man as Steve W. Matijasic, an adjustment manager of the Sun Finance Co. The theft from the Aetna Finance Co. was committed Friday.

According to the police captain, Matijasic said he entered the Aetna office with a key stolen from the home of a girl friend, who worked for Aetna.

The girl, who was not implicated in the robbery, reported the key theft Friday morning.

Police recovered $7,730 in cash in the basement of Matijasic's home. Previously more than $6,000 in checks had been located in a culvert.

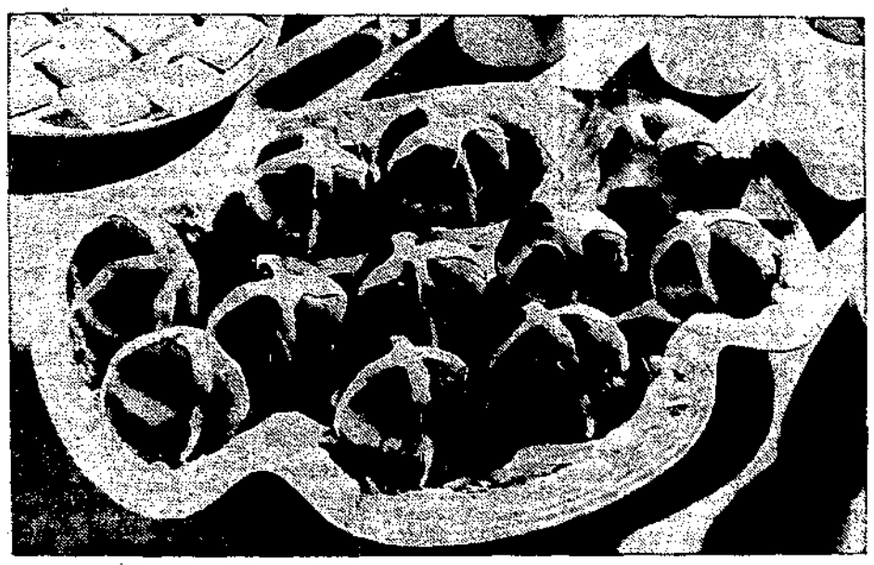
SCIENTISTS SOUGHT

Applications from chemists, physicists, metallurgists, mathematicians and electronic scientists for employment in various federal agencies in Washington, D.C., and vicinity are being sought by the Civil Service Commission. Further information and application forms can be secured from O. W. Wetzel at the Marion Post Office.

A LOT OF CHORES

GARDNER, Mass. (UP)—Nearing her 105th birthday, Mrs. Victoria Bonislawski still is able to do farm chores.

Hot Cross Buns Good Filled With Currants



Hot Cross Buns, in season throughout Lent, are good all year when filled with currants. Instead of icing them in the form of a cross, simply brush the top with sugar icing.

Like other breads, these buns are best served hot. An easy way to re-heat them is to put them into a paper bag, close the bag tightly and put into a moderately hot oven (400 F) for 10 or 15 minutes.

Use:

1 package active dry yeast
¼ cup warm water
¼ cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons melted margarine or butter
1 egg
2 tablespoons dry milk solids
3¼ cups sifted flour (about)
½ teaspoon cinnamon
⅛ teaspoon allspice
½ cup currants
confectioners' sugar icing

Springle yeast over warm water in bowl and let stand five minutes. Add sugar, salt, 1 cup flour and milk solids. Mix smooth. Add melted margarine or butter and egg. Beat well. Stir in remaining flour, cinnamon, allspice and currants. Turn out on lightly floured board or pastry cloth and knead until smooth and elastic (about 5 minutes). Shape into ball and put into lightly greased bowl. Cover with waxed paper, then clean towel. Set in cozy place to rise until doubled (about 2 hours). Punch down. Divide dough into pieces about the size of walnuts. Cover and let rest 5 minutes. Shape each piece into smooth ball. Place two inches apart on greased baking sheet, or 1 inch apart in greased shallow pans. Cover and let rise until doubled (about 1 hour). Bake in moderate oven (350 F.) 15 to 20 minutes, depending on size of rolls. Remove from pans at once and make cross of white icing on top of each roll. Makes 2 dozen small buns.

FAMILY REUNION

ENFIELD, N. H. (UP)—George Sprague. It started with a letter Lucy Mae Sawyer of Enfield, had been killed in a flood many years ago. When Mrs. Sawyer was hospitalized several months ago, her daughter began a search for Sparague. It started with a letter to St. John, N. B., birthplace of Sprague and Mrs. Sawyer. It ended in Bangor, Me., where Sprague now resides. So. New Year's week end was one of reunion for the brother and sister, a reunion after 37 years.

FINE! NO FINE

CONCORD, N.H. (UP)—Richard P. Sonderegger was arraigned for driving through a stop sign. He told the court he didn't stop because street lights in the area were off. Police verified this. Judge Donald G. Matson accepted Sonderegger's plea of guilty and placed the case on file. Normally, a fine of $3 would have been levied. Sonderegger went to the police chief's office and left $3 for the boys' club operated by police.

PRISON BLOOD

WETHERSFIELD, Conn. (UP)—The state's highest per capita record to blood donations to the Red Cross is claimed by inmates of the Wethersfield State Prison. Since 1950, when the program started, the prisoners have given 2,094 pints of blood, or an average of 30 pints every other week. Several inmates donated from two to three gallons each during the three-year period.

Red Blueprint

By Victor Riesel

Shaken down to its smallest and toughest core of some 25,000 disciplined revolutionists, the American Communist apparatus has just been told by its high command that all members must be ready to give up their homes, their personal interests, their jobs, their offices, and their professions, and even "to die without hesitation" to rebuild the Party in the coming year.

RIESEL

The objective is to retrieve the strength the Communists had in civic labor and governmental circles during the "popular front" days of the Thirties.

The Communist high command, taking orders from the Communist International representative in the U.S., has juggled its ranks and is reorganizing now that "peace" is here.

In the Party's own words, "The unfreezing of all political relationships which were established in the expectation of the inevitability of war against the Soviet "Union" now gives it the opportunity to come out of the underground.

To do this it is pulling as many of its people as it needs out of jobs ranging from waiters to TV performers and is ordering them into factory work.

IF THIS IS HARD for the average Main St. American to believe, just remember the tovarischi live in a world where there is always darkness at noon. However, even in that shadow - land there is rebellion among some of the professionals and white collar workers who have been ordered to rip up their homes and move to factory cities where they can be slipped into industrial jobs.

So the Party is cracking down on the recalcitrant.

"Some Comrades view only a full-time functionary (paid party official) as a Party cadre," the high command told its rebels recently. "That is a wrong conception. Because of this incorrect concept many non-functionaries do not feel that they are Party cadres or are considered such by the higher committees. They do not feel, therefore, that assignments which require personal dislocation are meant for them.

"We must overcome this attitude in every district. The solution of this question is indispensable to the building of the kind of Party that can survive all the blows of the enemy."

The enemy—that's us.

HERE ARE THE Communist Party's specific plans for rebuilding its organization now that the Soviet's international armies are no longer shooting at our GI kids in the field:

The first step of these political-dope addicts is to set up a "national cadre policy." This means that all members are subject to military discipline. If a Communist is told to give up a waiter's job in a mid-town New York restaurant and take another near the Savannah thermo-nuclear plant, as was recently ordered — he must do so immediately, regardless of family or home ties.

"Lives must be placed at the disposal of the Party," said the edict.

Meanwhile, under the Party's theory of concentration, the high command is selecting special industries. It believes that only in industrial labor does the Party have a chance to regain a mass base. For each industry there will be a special coordinator. Under each coordinatir there will be little cadres, filled out of a central pool, the way our military induction centers dispatch recruits to special camps.

ONCE THE CADRES arrive, say in Detroit or in Los Angeles, attempts will be made to slip them into strategic plants. These factories are selected, not only for their military sensitivity for sabotage and espionage, but also for size, so that skilled propagandists can again win followers.

And they are skilled, for they have gone through cadre schools and will soon begin to receive a special "Org - Bulletin" with instructions and discussions brain-numbering enough to replace the ordinary sleeping pill.

After every "concentration district and shop" is thus covered, the coordinator expects that each plant, building and department, and even each shift, will have at least one cadre member. The system is working fine for the tovarischi at the huge Ford River Rouge plant. That's the comrade's pride and joy, and descriptions of it fill the industrial reports to Moscow.

Through such industrial coverage by the cadres, the Party hopes to recruit a following in AFL and CIO unions—and in their political leagues and committees as well. Then on to Washington again.

That's the way they've spelled it out this peace-time.

Movie Magazines

By Saul Pett

(For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK

Somebody dumped a pile of old movie fan magazines near my desk and I looked them over. It was harrowing.

It also was inspirational, in a way, because these editors seem to have such great, big, ubiquitous hearts. Moreover, they must use very sensitive seismographs to detect the slightest heart tremors anywhere in the world.

In March, 1953, Motion Picture magazine found the Gregory Pecks abroad, where he was making a picture, and the writer was enchanted by their marital bliss. "Theirs is the story of a love that's nourished from day to day."

THE NEXT MONTH, a title in Filmland magazine echoed the enchantment: "Live Alone and Like It? Never!" Sub-head: "Family life and love isn't a sometime thing for Gregory Peck. . . . He wants his brood around him wherever he goes. . . ."

But right under this, as though a hot cable had just been flashed in, was a boxed editor's note: "Unfortunately, as we go to press, there are storm warnings from the Peck household; but because of the solid foundation the marriage has, we have every hope the difficulties between Greta and Greg will soon be straightened out."

It struck me as a purely unselfish hope. Still, the clouds were gathering.

The same month, Photoplay asked, "Trouble Across the Way?" There were hints of a foreign romance in Peck's life and Photoplay was facing up to them squarely.

In May, Modern Screen asked, "Divorce Ahead (for the Pecks)?"

BUT IN AUGUST, Modern Screen was reassuring. "Peck's a good boy now," it said. Still, two months later, Screenland's seismograph wasn't satisfied. "There is a new Gregory Peck, a worldly sophisticate," it said, "and reports are that he and Greta are finished with each other forever. . ."

I quickly flipped through the magazines to see if the dilemma had been resolved in some issue I had missed. It hadn't although Screenland was certain about "Gene's affair with Aly." It said, "There's no doubt Gene Tierney's flipped over Aly Khan, but will they wed?"

Well, would they? I raced to the next issue of the magazine hoping to find the answer. Instead, I found another question—"What's happened to Jeff—How long can Jeff (Chandler) keep a smile on his face to cover up an inner void?"

With questions tumbling over questions in my mind, I raced down to the nearest newsstand for the very latest fan magazines.

The first thing I saw was a Hollywood columnist's "good news" in Modern Screen. Sub-title: "Shelley vs. Vittorio. . . . June Haver finds Fred MacMurray. . . . Dale Robertsons split. . . ."

Well, Hollywood seemed to be batting .333 in good news, unless, of course, June didn't happen to want to find Fred.

But again, another infernal question: "Is Anne on a merry-go-round?" Sub-title: "Anne Baxter shows no sign of letting up on her daring plan to become one of Hollywood's sexiest stars."

This explanation, of course, raised many more questions than it answered but by then I had run out of money. I couldn't afford any more magazines. My nervous system couldn't, either.

Choice of State Committee

Nelsonville Is Favored As Site for TB Hospital

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state health department's advisory committee on tuberculosis care has recommended Nelsonville, near Athens, as the "most suitable location" for a new TB hospital.

The unanimous recommendation is in the hands of Dr. John D. Porterfield, state health director who says he has not had a chance to study the report throughly. Dr. Porterfield will be out of town most of this week.

The committee met with Dr. Porterfield last week and went over sites proposed in these counties: Muskingum, Guernsey, Lawrence, Gallia, Washington, Vinton, Hocking, Athens and Columbiana. Columbiana County was ruled out at once because it is not in southeastern Ohio.

The committee defined southeastern Ohio as south of U. S. 40 and east of U. S. 23. Cities bidding for the hospital, estimated to cost 1½ million dollars, were Zanesville, Cambridge, Logan, Nelsonville, Athens, New Lexington, Gallipolis, Ironton, Marietta, Wellsville and McArthur. Wellsville is in Columbiana County.

Dr. Ralph E. Dwork, chief of the department's tuberculosis division, was chairman of last week' meeting. He said the committee was united on its final recommendation.

After the meeting, Dr. Porterfield said the committee offered many building recommendations which will be turned over to the architects.

The committee made a thorough study of present and future needs of a TB hospital in southeastern Ohio from medical clinical and public health points of view, the chairman said.

Selection of the hospital site was delayed from last fall partly due to the department's wish to examine all sites offered and to give each community a fair hearing, Dr. Porterfield said. The department also wanted to get the best possible site at the least possible cost to the state.

The committee said it will not have to pay for the site at Nelsonville and that all utilities and sewage will be brought to the hospital site at no cost to the state, if Nelsonville is the final selection.

"The committee carefully considered the type of facility," Dr. Dwork reported. "The committee recommends a flexible design, adequate case-finding facilities, resources for community follow up of discharged and unhospitalized patients, space for an out patient clinic, a rehabilitation program, and space for public health activities."

Overall factors considered by the community included population and its distribution, general hospital facilities available, distribution of the TB problem including potential TB cases, general location within the area, community interest, nearness to existing state institutions, sewage, power, water and other facilities, availability of other community resources, and assurance the site would be provided without cost and utilities would be brought to the edge of the site without cost.

Don S. Midlam Describes Experiences of Plane Crew in World War

Booksellers across the nation today will have on display the first novel of a former Marion resident, Don S. Midlam.

The book — "The Flight of the Lucky Lady"—is a fictionalized account of Midlam's World War II experiences.

The author, now a resident of Bend, Ore., is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl O. Midlam who live on the Columbus - Sandusky Pike. Carl Midlam, a former city safety service director, is now retired and spends the winter months in Florida.

THE AUTHOR was born in Marion in 1908. He lived here until 1930, attending the public schools. After school he worked for the Marion Loan Co., leaving here in 1930 to join the Lima Loan Co.

Eventually he left Ohio entirely, going to Bend, Ore. where he established his own business, the National Finance and Discount Co. of Oregon.

Midlam served as an Army Air Corps officer for three and one-half years, two of them in the Pacific. His most notable service was as Capt. Midlam, air-sea rescue officer of the 504th bomb group based on Tinian in the Marianas Islands. The 504th was a B-29 squadron assigned to bomb the Japanese home islands.

As air-sea rescue officer Midlam came to know many of the men in the outfit, often by rescuing them when they had crashed in the sea. The lead plane in the squadron was the "Lucky Lady." This plane became an Air Force legend. Many planes have been named after her. For instance "Lucky Lady II" flew around the world in 1949.

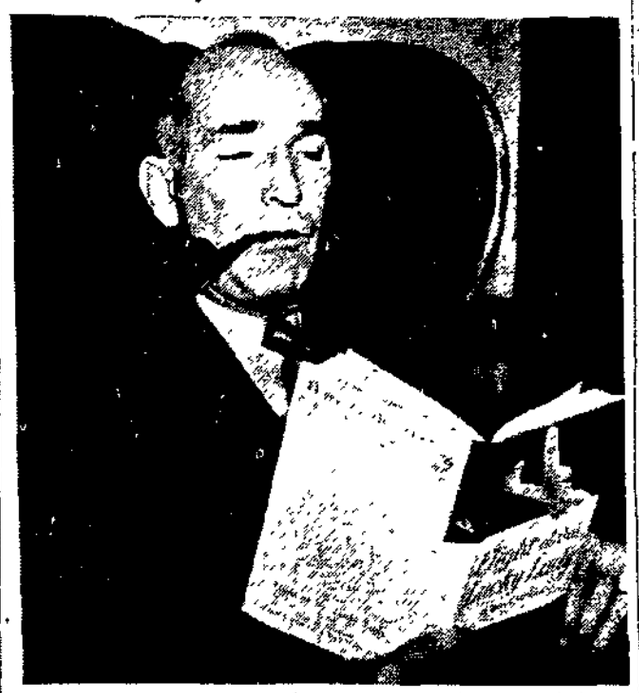
THE ORIGINAL "LADY" was considered one in a million—a perfect airplane. It had no flaws. Its engines generated more power than most, and it proved itself indestructible. It had a perfect crew, too. So, when the "Lucky Lady" and her crew were leading a mission, everyone else felt safer because of it.

Midlam flew in the "Lady" many times, though he was not a passenger on its most notable raid, the destruction of the Mitsubishi aircraft factory in Nagoya, Japan.



DON S. MIDLAM, former Marion man whose first novel is being released today, scans a copy of the book, "The Flight of the Lucky Lady," a story based on his experiences in the Air Force.

Nagoya is now a thriving city, the center of the pottery industry in Japan, but in 1945 it housed the world's largest aircraft factory —and was the most heavily defended spot in the world at that time.

The Mitsubishi factory was destroyed by a daylight B-29 raid in which the 504th bomb group took part. Lead plane on this raid was the "Lucky Lady."

THE STORY OF this raid — the legend of the "Lucky Lady"—suggested itself to Midlam as one that just had to be written. Midlam had always had ambitions to be an author. He had tried his hand at articles for business magazines, but had never before attempted fiction, let alone a novel. He began to write the "Flight of the Lucky Lady" immediately following the war. Nine years and 15 re-writes later, the book was published.

The story is told through the eyes of Chaplain Raite, the actual chaplain of the 504th. In the novel the chaplain is a 45-year-old, old-fashioned Methodist minister, rigid and narrow in his background. This novel is the story of the impact of the swearing, drinking, and courageous American fighting man —upon Chaplain Raith.

The chaplain lives with three near-perpetually drunk officers, and flies in the "Lucky Lady" on the Mitsubishi raid. He crashes at sea and comes near death himself. What effect all this has on Chaplain Raith makes good reading.

French Ski Train Jumps Track, 9 Die, 14 Injured

TOULOUSE, France (AP)—A cog railway train streaking down a mountain in the French Pyrenees with holiday skiers jumped the tracks and plunged into a 1,500-foot ravine yesterday. Nine persons were killed and 14 injured.

The train was 3,700 feet up the mountain on its way from a ski run to Luchon when it derailed. It was believed the brakes failed.

As the train shot off the track and skidded over rocks to the ravine's brink, some passengers jumped. They were flung under the wheels and crushed between the rocks and the sides of the train.

The train was the three-rail type for steep grades. The rail's center track is notched to mesh with a cog wheel on the engine.

Poultry Talk Scheduled

Dr. Clyde Marsh, poultry extension expert in this area of the state, will discuss poultry problems with Marion County producers Thursday at 8 p.m. in the county courthouse.

Marketing, feeding, disease control and other poultry problems will be discussed at the meeting which will be held in the courtroom. A question and answer session will be included on the program.

Coyle To Run Senate Campaign for Saxbe

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Managing William Saxbe's senatorial nomination drive will be Martin A. Coyle, chairman of the Butler County Republican Executive Committee.

Coyle said yesterday he accepted Saxbe's offer to handle the GOP primary fight against Rep. George Bender of Cleveland. He will assume charge of the campaign headquarters in Columbus today.

The new campaign manager was a strong follower of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft. Saxbe was speaker of the House at the last session of the state Legislature.

ESCAPED TRUSTY CAPTURED

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Russell C. Spring, 30, was returned to London Prison Farm yesterday after being arrested in a Stovertown (Muskingum County) farm house. He escaped from the prison farm, where he was serving a term for probation violation, Jan. 4.

Monkey Is Unusual Pet

Some People Keep Dogs, Upper Couple Has Pixie

UPPER SANDUSKY — A Rhesus monkey named Pixie is a household pet, unique in Upper Sandusky, at the home of Bill and Betty Beard.

Pixie is five years old, stands nearly three feet high when stretched erect to search the pockets of her owners for candy or dog-biscuits and weighs 20 pounds.

She eats all kinds of fruits and vegetables, either cooked or raw, but no meat, and likes milk from a cup. She also enjoys soft drinks, particularly lemon pop, and will even take a little beer.

PIXIE AND THE HOUSEHOLD pup are fast friends, but the mother-dog and the monkey maintain a state of guarded truce that occasionally breaks out into open warfare, a test in which Pixie can usually cuff the stuffin' out of the dog without too much difficulty. The pup, of an apparently mixed-up character that might be predominately fox terrier, will playfully push the monkey and enjoys having Pixie comb through his hair and scratch his ribs.

Bath time is a trial for both Pixie and her owners and it takes the combined efforts of both Mr. and Mrs. Beard to complete the weekly ritual. Begging for food while Betty is preparing the meals and even while she is washing dishes is one of the monkey's favorite pastimes. The other is riding in a car.

A tourist at heart, Pixie tries to watch both sides of the road at once while riding, is always ready to go for a drive and always reluctant to leave the car when they return.

She wears a collar and chain without any resentment, but unlike her larger cousins, the chimps, will not wear clothing. Of a type native to India and other Old World areas, the Rhesus monkey stands cool weather better than most of its near relatives. Pixie is apparently quite comfortable on an enclosed porch or in the garage at the Beard home, except in the most severe weather.

HER OWNERS ARE LOOKING for a suitable mate for Pixie, since they are interested in trying to raise an infant Rhesus under favorable conditions for training. They purchased the monkey from an acquaintance in Marion, nearly two years ago, but believe she was a little too old even then for best results in learning tricks.

She is not the first pet monkey Beard has owned. While serving with the army in England and Germany during World War II, he had, for several months, a smaller animal of the "organ-grinder" type, but lost that friendly little pet when it was hit by shrapnel.

Beard is a truck driver employed with a local firm engaged in the buying, selling and transportation of hay and straw. Mrs. Beard is employed in the office of a concrete block manufacturing concern here.

Both enjoy training their unusual pet, but Mr. Beard is more successful in obtaining nearly complete cooperation and obedience, since the Rhesus is, to a large degree, a one-man pet.

Texas Lad Not Bashful

DENTON, Tex. (AP)—Lone Star Gas Co. had open house at a new office here. A small boy came in and visited

A host asked, "Won't you have some more punch?"

"No," said the boy, "I'm full."

"Will you have some more cookies?"

"No, I'm full of cookies."

"Then, won't you put some cookies in your pocket to take home?"

"No," said the lad, heading out th door, "they're full too."

A RARE CUB. This is "Auroa," a polar bear at the Cincinnati, O. zoo, and her three-months old cub, as yet unnamed because the sex has not been determined. Zoo officials kept the birth a secret because few baby polar bears live long when born in captivity. This white, plump youngster is playful and active. During pregnancy, "Auroa" was put on a special diet and isolated.

HELD IN SHOOTING

CINCINNATI (AP) — An argument at a birthday party led to the fatal shooting Saturday of Charles Houston, 31. Police arrested Otis May, 58, and held him on an open charge today.

Young Democrats Select Officers at Cincinnati Parley

CINCINNATI (AP) — Young Democrats from a score of Ohio cities were back in their home communities today after a weekend convention. At the biennial political sessions they promised to support Gov. Lausche and Sen. Burke in their bids to return to office.

The League of Young Democratic Clubs Saturday elected Nelson Lancione of Columbus president. He succeeded John J. Babka, St. Clairsville.

Other officers are Robert Piper, Marietta, first vice president; John P. Frazier of Martins Ferry, William Luttmer of Cincinnati and Lowell Howard of Wellston, vice presidents; Wanda Woodward, Akron, secretary, Joseph Loha, Steubenville, treasurer; Norman Phillips, Cleveland, and Gloria Karpinski, Cleveland, delegates to the Young Democratic Clubs of America, and Patti von Schrultz, Columbus, and Harold McCloud, Akron, alternate national delegates.

Pistol Shot Ricochets, Hits Roy Rogers. Trigger

EDINBURGH, Scotland (AP)—Cowboy film star Roy Rogers shot himself and his horse Trigger during a weekend performance at a local theater. But tell the kids to relax.

Roy escaped with a slight nosebleed and Trigger with a stung flank.

They were hit by small pellets which ricocheted off the stage while Roy was demonstrating his pistol marksmanship.

Dinner Held at School

25 New Members Join Shovel Co. 25-Year Club

One of the largest groups of new members in years was enrolled in the Marion Power Shovel Co. 25-Year Club at its ninth annual banquet held Saturday night at the Harding High School dining room.

In all, 25 new members were welcomed into the club to bring the membership total up to 265. The club honors MPS employees with 25 or more years continuous service with the company.

John P. Courtright, president and general manager, in welcoming the new members, paid special tribute to six MPS employees who have worked at the company more than 50 years. They are William H. Layman who joined the company in 1898; Harry Fies, 1901; George Fies and Joseph W. Wedertz, 1902; and George F. Lashey and Leo O. Thew, 1903.

NEW OFFICERS elected for the coming year were Sheridan Severns, president, and Graden E. Sobers, vice president. Mary F. Schuler, one of the club's four women members, was re-elected club secretary - treasurer. Clarence W. Dutton, former president, served as toastmaster.

Lapel pins and membership cards were presented to new members by Mr. Courtright: M. V. Cornell, vice president in charge of sales; Martin Tuttle, works manager; and Adrian F. Busick, vice president in charge of engineering.

"People I Like" was the topic of Dusty Miller, Wilmington, O., newspaperman, humorist, and philosopher. Tension — not work — is the cause of our troubles today, he said. "Have balance in your life — do the things you like to do and like the things you are doing," he said.

"There are only two kinds of people in the world and all of us fall somewhere in between. The first jumps out of bed, throws arms, and says, 'Good morning, Lord.' The other fellow reaches over, pushes off the alarm clock, groans, and says, 'Good Lord, morning.'"

The speaker got a standing ovation when he finished his talk.

ELMER S. (HAP) HOFFMAN, speaking for the new members of the club, said he was pleased and honored to become a member. The entire club was led in singing "America" by Merle Lashey. Invocation was given by Harry C. Williams, a past president of the club, and benediction was given by Clifford Ward, another club past president.

New members of the club are Garold Armbruster of 271 Homer St., Frank Barton of 786 Bennett St., Arthur B. Ferriman of 205 Waterloo St., Theodore Hecker of near Marion, Simon Barnhart of 484 Thompson St., Ed T. Bettels of Excelsior, Minn., MPS district manager, Burnell Brown of near Ashley; William D. Finley of near Marion, Arden R. Groll of near Marion, Harry Gruber of 285 W. Columbia St., Elmer S. Hoffman of 551 Mary St., Ernest G. Houser of 238 N. Main St., Wilbur Keck of 838 Merkle Ave., Walter Kraft of 694 Windsor St., John Kreitzer of Union Depot Hotel, Orville V. Levien of 990 E. Church St., Chester B. R. McCoy of 274 Marion Ave., Dana McCrosky of 372 Davids St., C. R. Pennisten of 220 Hane Ave., William C. Radel of 480 N. Main St., Frank Rasey of 795 Davids St., C. D. Wells of 140 W. Walnut St., Homer Walters of 555 N. Greenwood St., Irey E. Williams of 554 Henry St., Omar E. Williams of 953 Congress St.

Dinner music was provided by Billie Johnston, George Lane, and Don Northrup.

DEATH STAYED OUTSIDE THE SANDBOX. The five little girls were playing in the sandbox when a light plane crashed a few feet behind, killing the pilot and a passenger at Falls Church, Va. Mrs. Joseph Ripani (right), mother of three of the children, tries to quiet daughter, Barbara Ann, 2. A fireman has brought up a hose line but there was no fire. Mr. and Mrs. Pipani were standing in the yard talking to a neighbor, Mrs. Jeanne Barbagallo, who was hurt slightly when the tail of the plane grazed her. The girls are, left to right, Kathy Stringer, 4; Theresa Ann Barbagallo, 2½; Carolyn Ripani, 5; Mary Jo Ripani, 6; and Barbara.

Union Evangelical Service at Oakland Attended by 350

An audience of more than 350 attended the union Evangelical United Brethren evangelistic service at Oakland EUB Church in Marion last night to hear Rev. Morton Dorsey of Chillicothe and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bierce of Logansport, Ind. This Gospel Truth Crusade is sponsored by the five EUB Churches of the community and will continue through Sunday.

Tonight will be Church Night for the host church members and their guests. Succeeding nights will be allocated to the various other churches, and before the meetings close the Sunday School superintendent and the pastor who has had largest percentage of Sunday School enrollment and church membership present respectively throughout the meeting will be given awards of honor.

As his special presentation last night, Mr. Bierce, music director and soloist for the meetings, gave a reading on "Faith, Hope, and Love."

Rev. Dorsey preached on "God's Goodly Grants," taking his text from the first chapter of Luke, verses 67 to 75. He said, "There are grants of privilege, power, or of certain positions, but through God's goodness we have been given a tremendous grant. Everything we have comes as a grant from God. We may serve God without fear all the days of our life. You are not a Christian until you accept Christ as your personal saviour. You can act like one, talk like one, but that doesn't make you a Christian. You must accept Christ."

Brown Refuses Election Board Reappointment

Trumbull County Man Called Uncooperative By Secretary of State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Secretary of State Ted W. Brown today reported his refusal to reappoint Frank A. Chickelli of Warren as a Democratic member of the Trumbull County Election Board for a new four-year-term.

Brown asked the county Democratic executive Committee, headed by Chickeli, to recommend "a qualified Democrat to fill the post."

Brown's prepared statement followed an investigation of irregularities growing out of the 1953 elections. The secretary of state and members of his staff climaxed the investigation with a hearing in Warren last Thursday and Friday.

Brown charged Chickelli in his notification with "misfeasance, malfeasance and nonfeasance in office."

Brown said Chickelli as chairman of the election board was uncooperative and had "shown contempts for earnest efforts of the secretary of state to shed the full truth in this investigation."

Chickelli actively attempted to hinder the investigation, Brown added.

The secretary of state said Chickelli had used his position as board chairman "unduly" in his capacity as head of the county Democratic executive committee.

As an election official, Brown told Chickelli he had gone "far beyond the accepted principles of the two-party system."

During the hearing in Warren, Brown said it was necessary to reprimand Chickelli several times.

County election boards are composed of two Democratic and two Republican members, each serving four-year terms.

Brown said two investigators were assigned to Warren to continue an inquiry into operations of the election board.

Who profits from profit?

EVERYBODY PROFITS from profit. Here's how. Fifty years ago a good many men were going into the business of making automobiles—in the hope of making a profit.
Some of these men lost their investment, others made money. A few were very successful and they plowed back most of the profits into the business. Today the companies these men founded and nursed along provide more than 8 million highly-paid jobs—and automobiles for 45 million families.
Look at it another way. Forty years ago a good workman made about $1.85 a day. Today the fellow with a comparable job makes $12 or more a day.
Back in 1910-1915 money invested in production machines averaged out to about $3500 per employee. Today the average employee has a "kit of tools" worth about $12,000. These better tools were made possible largely by the profits that were plowed back into the business.
Profit is not only important to owners. It's equally important to employees and customers. Progress depends on profit.
A family's progress, too, depends to a large degree on its yearly profit. Plan your family spending so that you can deposit part of every pay check in a bank account—here, we suggest.

Marion Skaters Blanked 2-0 by Cincinnati's Hodge

Setback Follows 4-2 Win Saturday Over Johnstown

Cincinnati's Charley Hodge notched his ninth shutout of the season here yesterday, blanking the Barons 2-0 before 3,224 fans.

His performance betters his International Hockey League record set only last week.

Saturday night, Marion bettered its hold on second place with a 4-2 win at Johnstown.

Hodge needed all his skill and a lot of luck in addition yesterday as the Barons pelted him with 30 shots which he kicked away from the nets. Three other shots, which the Mohawk ace misse struck the rail of the net and bounced away. The win was the 14th straight for the league leaders and cracked a 10-game win streak at home for the Barons.

In the scoring column, the Mohawks took just five minutes and 13 seconds to sew up the verdict. Art Rose notched his 38th goal of the season when he batted in a rebound. Duke Edmundson and Kenny Biggs assisted. Biggs had just had a shot batted out by Lou Crowdis.

Billy Gould and Mickey Keating teamed up to add an insurance tally in the third period. Keating grabbed a free puck at the Marion end of the rink and passed out to Gould who raced the length of the ice for the score. The marker came after 8:54 had passed.

Referee Hal Jackson was the busiest man on the ice. He blew 71 minutes in penalties during the rugged battle.

Riot Breaks Out

A riot erupted during the first period when Phil Vitale and Cincinnati's Ed Kachur were banished for fighting. The Mohawk ace, after seating himself in the box, began using his stick on Jack Boag, Marion trainer. Boag continued the fight and Tony Poeta joined in. Poeta and Kachur rolled over the Marion bench to carry on the fight in the west corridor of the Coliseum.

The Cincinnati bench emptied as Mohawks streamed onto the rink to aid Kachur. Jackson and Lineman Mert Prophit were able to restore peace after a 15-minute delay. Only casualty was Leland Watson, Coliseum custodian, who suffered an eye cut when he was clipped by a free-swinging skate.

The fast-skating Barons scored twice in the first 3½ minutes and stayed out front to defeat Johnstown 4-2 before 2,785 paid admissions Saturday night.

Gordon Vejprava had a hand in three of the Barons' four points, scoring once and having two assists.

After Dutch Delmonte golfed a shot from just inside the blue line at 1:27 of the first period, Vejprava got his goal just two minutes later, also on a loft shot but not quite as far.

Ron Castalane, one of the two new Jets playing their first game here, scored at 6:38 while Phil Vitale was in the penalty box.

Regain Lead

The Barons regained a two-point lead halfway through the second period on Tony Poeta's wicked 15-foot shot from the right side. The third period had scarcely gotten under way when Fraser Kilpatrick scored from close range to again reduce the gap to one point at 3-2.

Neither team was able to score in the almost 18 furious moments which followed until Wimpy Jones got hold of a loose puck to score at an open cage. Goalie Don Simmons had been removed shortly before to make room for another winger.

Simons had 22 saves and Crowis 29.

The Barons will be idle until next Sunday when they travel to Johnstown. Their next home game will be March 10 against Troy's Bruins.

TOUGH IN DOUBLEHEADERS

CHICAGO (AP)—American League statistics show that the champion New York Yankees helped themselves to the 1953 flag via the doubleheader route. The Bronx Bombers won 25 games and lost only nine in twin bill competition. They copped both games nine times and only once did they drop both games. The Washington Senators were the only ones to do the trick. The Yanks split seven doubleheaders.

Vernon Balk Could Bring Player Deal

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The prospect of a major trade involving Mickey Vernon, the American League's leading batter last season, was more than a remote possibility as spring training officially opened in the major league camps today.

The 35-year-old Washington first baseman has yet to sign his 1954 contract. He is said to be asking for double the $19,000 he received last year.

"No, I won't sell him," Clark Griffith, Senators owner, declared. "But I might trade him if they offered me the right players for him."

He added it had never been his practice to trade players who are boldouts, but that he might be ready to make an exception in Vernon's case.

Several American League clubs, Cleveland and Baltimore among them, have been reported seeking first base help and in Vernon they'd be getting just that. Besides his pace-setting .337 average in 1953, the veteran drove out 15 homers and piled up 115 runs batted in.

Better news for the Senators was the return yesterday of star pitcher Bob Porterfield, almost completely recovered from a minor concussion. The big right-hander was hospitalized Saturday after being hit by a batted ball in practice.

Enos Slaughter, another veteran, made the big noise in the St. Louis Cardinals' camp at St. Petersburg, Fla. He belted four "homers" over the fence. Said Enos after the workout: "Never felt better."

On other spring training fronts, Boston Red Sox Manager Lou Boudreau announced that Ivan Delock and rookie Jim Ehrler would pitch the club's grapefruit league opener against Pittsburgh Saturday . . . Rudy Regaldo, a .325 batter in the American Assn. last season, hit Cleveland's first home run in an intrasquad game . . . outfielder Bob Borkowski smashed a two-run homer in the first inning of Cincinnati's untrasquad game . . . Brooklyn stalwarts Jackie Robinson and Pee Wee Reese worked out for the first time . . . Pittsburgh Manager Fred Haney said many rookies would be in the lineup against the Boston Red Sox next Saturday . . . Ray Boone, Walt Dropo and Don Lund showed up in Detroit's Lakeland, Fla., camp.

Several players just got in under the March 1 signing deadline, including Second baseman Billy Martin and outfielder Gene Woodling of the Yankees, First baseman Whitey Lockman of the Giants and outfielder Johnny Wyrostek of the Phillies.

Buckeyes Conclude Campaign in Iowa

IOWA CITY (AP)—Ohio State University ends an exciting—if not successful — basketball season against Iowa here tonight.

Ohio State's team, mostly sophomores, hasn't won many ball games but they have added a heap of confusion to the Big Ten title chase.

With a 5-8 conference record and an 11-10 overall mark, Ohio State is in seventh place in the league.

For a while Ohio State couldn't beat anybody but Purdue. Then not even title - contenders Minnesota and Iowa could stop them.

Saturday night league - leading Indiana ended Ohio State's three-game winning streak with an 84-68 victory. The win assured Indiana of at least a tie for the conference title.

Epworth, Wesley in Impressive Victories in Y Church League

The YMCA Church Basketball League gave indications Saturday the second round would be a fight between Epworth and Wesley Methodist as both teams came up with decisive wins. Wesley dumped first round champions. Trinity Baptist 61-48 and Wesley defeated Calvary 62-36 to give both winners a record of two wins and no losses while all other teams in the loop have dropped at least one game.

Trinity was in the ball game with Epworth for only one quarter as both teams completed the first period with 14 points. Epworth blew the lid in the second period racing to a 32-20 lead and was never in trouble from this point on. Craycraft and Wolfe who poured in 24 and 20 points respectively paced the Epworth scoring.

Wesley wasted little time in cinching its tussle with Calvary by running to an early 16-6 first period lead. Wesley's 18 points in the second period iced the contest as Calvary, which dumped Trinity last week had difficulty in finding the range. Lon Earl flipped in 15 points to lead Wesley while Specker's eight tallies was Calvary's best.

Rural Salem came up with its first win of the second round by defeating the Church of the Brethren 59-47. Salem moved to a wide first period lead and was never in trouble after the first five minutes of the game. Earl of Salem was high with 23 points while Don Ballenger of the losing Brethren five heaved in 20 to head his team's scoring attack.

Palmer Edges De Vincenzo in Mexican Open

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Johnny Palmer held the Mexican Open golf championship today but he did it the hard way.

"I almost threw it away on the last few holes," said the Charlotte, N. C., shotmaker, recalling his collapse in the Texas Open a week ago when he blew the title after holding a five-stroke lead going into the final round.

Palmer finished with a 2-under-par 286 yesterday and for his efforts he earned $2,910 top money. But it took a dramatic putt on the last hole to salvage the match from the fast-closing Roberto de Vicenzo of Argentina.

Again Palmer held a four-stroke lead going into the last day. De Vicenzo was three strokes better than him on the final round, but he fell just short of overtaking Palmer. DeVicenzo posted a final-round 74 for a total of 287.

Girls' Match Tops Armory Mat Card

A girls match is included in six comprising the Thursday night wrestling program at the Marion Armory.

It pits Mara Bennett against Cora Combs in a best two-out-of-three falls match with a 60-minute time limit.

Three one-fall matches will precede a tag team match between the three losers and three winners. Gino Angelo, younger brother of Martino Angelo, grapples with Charlie Carr, winner of a battle royal here last week, in one of the matches.

The other two find George Maricostas going against Scotty Williams, holder of the tri-state championship belt, and Canadian Angel, otherwise known as "Skull Murphy," battling Jim Lewis.

The tag team match between the six grapplers will be a 60-minute, best two-out-of-three falls match.

Ohio Colleges Face Openings Of Tourneys

By FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The curtain drops this week on Ohio's regular college basketball season.

Of the state's 41 quintets, 16 have completed play — but the other 25 have a 19-game slate on tap, 5 against out-of-state opponents.

With all the championships decided, heavy interest now turns to the post-season tournaments. Marietta has the statewide and Ohio Conference laurels locked up, Toledo is champ of the Mid-American, and Findlay of the Mid-Ohio.

Dayton's Flyers, one of the state's two representatives in the National Invitation Tourney starting Saturday night as they tumbled Duquesne's national leaders 64-54.

Cincinnati had ended the 22-game Duquesne winning streak the night before, 66-52 at Cincinnati, to thoroughly deflate the pace - setters. Both Dayton and Duquesne are in the NIT field, the Dukes finishing third a year ago in the big classic, and Dayton as runner-up in 1951 and 1952—its only previous tries.

Ohio's other representative in the NIT will be Bowling Green, which accepted a bid last night after the Mid - American Conference waived a rule on post - season games. Bowling Green, which ends its season against Michigan State tonight, has a 15-6 record, including 2 wins over Toledo and 1 victory over Dayton.

John Carroll, Findlay, Rio Grande and Central State are the first to see tournament action. They meet Wednesday and Thursday in Cleveland in an NAIA playoff to determine which goes to Kansas City the following week for a chance at the championship.

Toledo, as champion of the Mid-American Conference, goes into a playoff at Fort Wayne, Ind., in a sectional playoff for the NCAA berth against Notre Dame and two other stalwarts.

The Ohio clubs should have stayed home last week, nine of them going over the borders for outside games and all meeting defeat. On the home front the Bucks won 8 and lost 2, which left them with 147 victories and 135 defeats in interstate play this season.

Ezzard Charles, former world's heavyweight champion, owns apartment houses in his home town, Cincinnati.

Defeated 46-29

Marion Swimming Squad Falls to Springfield Team

The Springfield YMCA swimming team continued its winning ways over the Marion YMCA natators by taking a 46-29 win in the local pool Saturday.

Five new pool records were set in a meet that was close until Springfield slammed the individual medley event to cinch the victory. Anzinger of the visitors started the record breaking with a 1:13.3 effort in the 100-yard breaststroke. Then Marion's Jim Jones pushed Callison of Springfield to a new record in the 100-yard freestyle, both boys being under the old time of 1:09.2. Callison's time was 1:06.4 and Jones finished in 1:07.5 Fyffe of Springfield broke the individual medley mark to end the individual record breaking.

Marion's medley relay team of Jim Forsythe, Gene Pelizonni, and Jim Jones set a new mark with a 1:47.9 timing while winning the event. Springfield however came right back with a new record in the 200-yard freestyle relay with a time of 2:03.2.

Summary:

50 - yard Freestyle: Won by States (S); 2, Schultz (S); 3, F. Jones (M); 3:29.8 sec.

100-yard Breaststroke: Won by Anzinger (S); 2, Dean (M); 3, Kreiner (S); 1:13.3 (new pool record).

200-yard Freestyle: Won by Pelizonni (M); 2, Axe (M); 3, Woodruff (S); 2:56.9. (new Marion varsity record).

100-yard Backstroke: Won by Davidson (S); 2, Forsythe (M); 3, Schultz (S); 1:19.9.

100-yard Freestyle: Won by Callison (S); 2, Jim Jones (M); 3, Fred Jones (M); 1:06.4 (new pool record).

Diving: Won by Lough (S); 2, Renn (M); 3, Turner (M).

150-yard Individual Medley: Won by Fyffe (S); 2, Foster (S); 3, Axe (M); 2:09.0 (new pool record).

150-yard Medley Relay: Won by Marion (Forsythe, Pelizonni, Jim Jones); 1:47.9 (new pool and varsity record).

200-yard Freestyle Relay: Won by Springfield (States, Fyffe, Anzinger, Callison); 2:03.2 (new pool record).

All of the association's license dealers have been invited to the meeting. There will be entertainment and refreshments will be served.

Hoosiers Cinch Tie for Crown, Defeat Bucks

CHICAGO (AP) — Having eased some of the pressure that was on them, Indiana's Hoosiers take a sideline seat tonight as Iowa and Illinois battle to remain in Big Ten title contention.

The Hoosiers cinched no worse than a tie for the championship Saturday by cooling off the previously red-hot Ohio State Buckeyes 84-68 for the 11th win in 13 Big Ten games.

Now the Hoosiers have only one hurdle between themselves and an undisputed title—a season - ending game with Illinois at Bloomington, Ind., Saturday.

Meantime Illinois and Iowa, both in the running for a share of the crown, play their next-to-last conference games tonight. Illinois has won 9 and lost 3; Iowa 10 and 3.

The Illini, 79-61 conquerors of Michigan Saturday, host Northwestern's Wildcats, who won 5 straight before Minnesota knocked them off 81-69 Saturday.

Iowa, which beat Michigan State 60-48, plays Ohio State at Iowa City. The Buckeyes upset The Hawkeyes 77-69 Feb. 15.

In other Big Ten games tonight, Purdue is at Michigan and Michigan State at Wisconsin.

Bowling

B. Haubert's 233 and John Kayatin's 567 led the men bowlers in the Mr. & Mrs. League at Marion Recreation Sunday. Women were led by Mary Brown and Virginia Keck's 144 games and the latter's 423 series. Jesters with 630 and Fire Balls with 1817 led the teams.

Ladies Commercial League keglers were topped by JoAnn Zimmerman's 184-474. She and Virginia Eby turned in a 6-7-10 split while Joe DeMilt handed in a 5-7 one. Team honors went to Mel's Jewelers with 816-2347.

Charles Gruber's 230-557 was tops in the Erie Railroad League. Bob Forsyth had the other 200 game, a 205. Erie No. 7 with 868-2458 paced the teams.

Bowlers in the Cooler League were led by J. Unland's 228 and Steve Hanovich's 570. Team No. 5 with 914-2537 topped the teams.

North Robinson Falls

Sulphur Springs Quintet Takes Crawford Crown

BUCYRUS — For the second consecutive year and the third time in het last four years, Sulphur Springs Yellow Jackets hold the Crawford County Class B Tournament title.

The Yellow Jackets eliminated North Robinson 69-62, in championship finals here Saturday night while Chatfield came from behind to defeat topseeded Mt. Zion 63-53 in consolation finals.

The county will be represented at the Mansfield tourney this week by Sulphur Springs, North Robinson and Chatfield.

Robinson, the tourney's "Cinderella" team, saw its hope for victory fade about halfway through the second quarter when its two high-scoring forwards, Ron Johnson and Chuck Grove, fouled out.

Loss of players via the foul route also figured strongly in Mt. Zion's defeat. Four Zion regulars fouled out in the fourth quarter.

Sulphur Springs and Robinson played on even teams in the first quarter, the period ending at 17-all. At half-time, Sulphur led 32-27 and was in front 52-43 going into the payoff stanza. In the last quarter, Terry Miller, Sulphur center, meshed 13 of his 23 points.

John Blackford, Robinson center, was high for the losers with 25, including 16 in the second half. Ron Kalb got 10 fielders for Sulphur.

Mt. Zion's offense folded in the third quarter when the pre-tourney favorites netted only five points to trail, 45-42, going into the final quarter after leading 37-29 at halftime.

Jim Kuhn fouled out at the start of the fourth quarter for Zion with Dale Shroll getting his fifth personal about three minutes later followed by Mike Winch and Frank Leuthold.

Center Vic Wurm hit 20 for Chatfield, nine of them coming in the final period. Paul Kanney got 16 and Jake Kriem, 12. Shroll netted 18, Winch, 16, and Kuhn, 12, for Zion.

Last year, Chatfield lost in consolation finals to Tiro.

Y Cage Committee Plans Tournament

The YMCA Basketball Committee today announced plans for a post season basketball tournament to be conducted at the Marion YMCA during the middle two weeks of March.

The Commitete has mailed invitations to 30 teams in the central-Ohio Area and have invited all other teams to participate.

Teams entering on this basis will be accepted only on the appraisal of the Committee. The Committee policy on the invitational tournament will eliminate the high-powered perennial state contendors and will accept only those teams which the committee considers to be in the same ability class as teams participating in the YMCA's three Senior Basketball Leagues.

Teams in the Marion County area desiring complete information on the tournament may do so by contacting Vern Miller, physical director of the YMCA, or Howard Gilbert, chairman of the YMCA basketball committee.

Al Rosen Possible First Base Choice

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Rudy Regalado, who hit American Association pitching for a .325 average in his first year of pro baseball, could possibly push Cleveland's Al Rosen from third to first base.

Regalado, who is 23 and after a degree from the University of Southern California, belted the Tribe's first home run of the year yesterday in an intrasquad game and gives promise of becoming a better fielder than the heavy-hitting Rosen.

But Manager Al Lopez, who remarked last fall he would move Rosen to first if he got a good third baseman, says he doesn't want any experimenting for the time being, pointing out "I have to give the three first basemen a good chance" first.

Leaders in City Bowling Tournament Unchanged

The leaders in the Men's City Bowling Tournament remained unchanged after another bowling session at Palace Recreation Sunday. Two sessions remain.

Jimmy Carter Defends Title In Top Battle

NEW YORK (AP) — The fighter some experts said wouldn't hold his title a year, engages in his ninth championship contest on Friday night in Madison Square Garden.

We're referring to Jimmy Carter, the solid-punching lightweight champion from New York, who is a 3-1 choice to beat challenger Paddy DeMarco in their 15-round bout.

Tagged by some as a "cheese champion" after he stopped Ike Williams to win the crown nearly three years ago, the poker-faced Negro goes into the scrap with three straight knockouts in title fights to his credit.

Carter's record is 65-16-8. DeMarco's record is 67-11-2.

The 10 p.m., EST, bout will be broadcast (ABC) and telecast (NBC) coast to coast.

Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, the tireless, 22-year-old New York Negro heavyweight, gets the stiffest test of his young career tonight when he faces Clarence Henry, eight - ranking heavyweight from Los Angeles at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway Arena.

Jackson stopped Rex Layne in six rounds Jan. 25. Henry was upset by light heavyweight contender Jimmy Slade in his last start, Feb. 17. Dumont will telecast the 10 p.m., EST, 10 rounder to some parts of the country.

Holly Mims, veteran Washington, D. C., middleweight contender who handed Willie Troy his only defeat, meets Moses Ward of Detroit at the Detroit Olympia Wednesday night. Ward was kayoed in the eighth round of a thriller several weeks ago by Troy. CBS will telecast the 10 rounder starting at 10 p.m., EST.

A return 10 round bout between welterweights' Rocky Casillo of Blue Island, Ill., and Joey Klein of New York features the Satuday night television show out of the Dayton, Ohio, Auditorium. Klein outpointed Casillo in a free-swinging affair in Brooklyn last October.

The scrap will start at 9 p.m., EST. ABC will telecast it coast to coast.

Chesterville Gains Revenge, Defeats Iberia in Tourney

MT. GILEAD — Chesterville gained revenge for its lone two defeats of the season by upsetting Iberia 68-58 here Saturday night for consolation honors in the Morrow County basketball tournament.

Iberia had previously downed the league champs in league play and in the tourney semi-finals 59-50.

Marengo downed Cardington 46-35 in a preliminary match for the county tournament reserve championship.

Chesterville jumped into a 35-22 advantage at halftime and retained the lead for most of the rest of the way although the cold Iberia team staged a mild rally in the last period.

Cliff Perkins, who hit for 11 points in the second period when the winners began to pull away, wound up with 24 for the winners. Morris James notched 16 while Roger Craig added 14. Walt Chambers was the big gun for Iberia with 18 points while Howard Miller added 17 and Don Robinson 12.

Chesterville connected on 18 of 26 free throw attempts while Iberia was parting the nets on 14 of 23 trys.

One Opening Remaining in NIT Tourney

NEW YORK (AP)—Only one spot remained to be filled in the National Invitation Tournament today and it is an open secret that the second-place team in the Southwest Conference will get the bid.

The league race is scheduled to end tomorrow night when Rice and Texas, which are tied for first place each with 8-3 records, play Southern Methodist and Texas Chrisuan, respectively.

The conference winner, of course, will go the NCAA Tournament, which still is far from settled. The NIT will be satisfied with the runner-up.

So the 11 teams in the NIT now are Duquesne, Niagara, Dayton, Louisville, Western Kentucky, St. Francis of Brooklyn, St. Francis of Loretto, Pa., Manhattan, Holy Cross, Bowling Green and Wichita. If it wins the Missouri Valley title, however, Wichita will pull out. The club has finished its league season with an 8-2 mark. Oklahoma A&M the leader with 7-1, still must meet Tulsa and St. Louis.

Holy Cross and Bowling Green were named to the NIT yesterday after Connecticut was named to represent New England in the NCAA. Connecticut defeated Holy Cross 78-77 Saturday night

For Bowling Green, which finished second to Toledo in the Mid-America Conference, the NIT appearance will be its sixth. It reached the final once and this year shows a 15-6 record.

The NCAA gets under way next week and although all the brackets aren't filled, here is how the teams line up at the moment:

At Fort Wayne, Toledo will play either Notre Dame, Loyola or Penn State, all at-large teams. Toledo's opponent will leave the other two to play.

At Buffalo the same night, Fordham will play La Salle and Connecticut will go against Navy.

The rest of the Eastern field still is undecided Duke is champion of the Atlantic Coast Conference, but the NCAA bid goes to the team that wins the league's postseason tourney. Ditto with the Southern Conference, where George Washington came out on top.

The Ivy League still has three contenders—Cornell, Princeton and Penn. The Big Ten will send either Indiana, Iowa or Illinois. The Hoosiers already have clinched a tie, and if they defeat Illinois, Saturday, they're in. Illinois also plays Northwestern while Iowa tangles with Ohio State tonight. It could wind up in the three-way tie.

In the Southeastern Conference, Kentucky and Louisiana State are unbeaten and this one, too, could finish in a tie.

The Western section is more settled. The four at-large teams are Bradley, Santa Clara, Oklahoma City and Seattle, plus Idaho State, the Rocky Mountain titlist, and Colorado A&M, the Skyline champion.

The Big Seven representative could be decided tonight when Kansas plays Colorado, and the Border Conference winner will be determined tomorrow night when Texas Tech and West Texas State meet.

The Pacific Coast Title will be determined this weekend when Southern California, the Southern Division winner, plays Oregon State, champion of the Northern Division.

Portuguese Pup Bails Man Out of Hoosegow

LISBON, Portugal (UP) — Piloto, a mongrel with a cropped tail, has won a medal for "bailing his master out of jail.

Piloto's owner, a shoemaker at nearby Cartaxo, was jailed for disturbing the peace after imbibing too enthusiastically at a wine-testing meet.

The dog traced his master to the hoosegow and howled out front until the police had enough and released the wayward wine-tester.

The local Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals awarded Piloto a medal for "faithfulness.

Tebbetts Impressed By Rookie Pitcher

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Manager Birdie Tebbetts said today he may schedule two or more intrasquad games for his Cincinnati Redlegs prior to this Saturday's exhibition contest with the Chicago White Sox.

The first intrateam battle ended yesterday in a 2-2 stalemate when a heavy shower swept over Plant field.

Harold (Corky) Valentine, 24-year-old Troy, Ohio righthander, displayed excellent control and a good sinker in the two innings he pitched.

"I like what I saw today," Tebbetts said. "He's a smooth worker and impresses me as being a take-charge type of guy."

Lake Central Begins Service to Lima

Safety Director for City Represents Marion at Airport Ceremony

Safety - Service Director Ralph Forrest represented the city of Marion Saturday afternoon in ceremonies at Lima marking the beginning of air service to that city by Lake Central airlines.

Two inaugural flights, both bearing dignitaries from Ohio and Indiana, converged on Lima Saturday afternoon. One plane, starting from Columbus, carried Lt. Gov. John W. Brown and C. E. A. Brown, state director of aviation. It stopped at New Philadelphia to pick up the mayors of that city and Dover, at Mansfield for its mayor and at Marion for Forrest, who was representing Mayor Robinson.

THE SECOND PLANE originated in Indianapolis and carried Lake Central Airline officials, as well as civic representatives from Lafayette and Kokomo, Ind. Both planes carried representatives from the press and radio.

The flight from Indianapolis was aircraft 777, the Centraliner Lima, especially named in honor of the occasion.

A crowd of 300 watched ceremonies opening the airline route. Welcoming speeches were given by Lima Mayor W. L. Ferguson and L. W. Wilt, president of the Lima Association of Commerce. R. B. Stewart, president of the airline, responded briefly, saying how important it was that Lima is now connected with the other medium-sized cities of Ohio, Indiana and Michigan.

SHOWN CHATTING following the inaugural ceremonies that opened the Lima city airport to Lake Central Airline flights are Lieut. Gov. John W. Brown and Ralph Forrest, Marion safety-service director. Brown represented the state and Forrest the city at the Lima ceremonies.

The inaugural address was given by Lt. Gov. Brown. He spoke for about three minutes, praising the citizens of Lima on the successful conclusion of their fight to get an airport and for building it entirely with municipal funds.

The Centraliner Lima was christened with water from the Gulf of Mexico and the St. Lawrence River. The two waters symbolized the joining of Lima with the cities to the south and north.

Following this brief ceremony the citizens of Lima were guests of Lake Central on short flights around the city. Dignitaries and newspaper men attended a formal reception in the Lima Club.

The Lima city airport has one runway, large enough to land two-motor planes, such as compose the Lake Central fleet. The air terminal is equipped with a small snack bar. Three flights daily will service Lima residents.

Records at GIS Criticized by Ohio Examiner

Shortage in Accounts Reported by Auditor; Cite Poor Bookkeeping

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A state examiner today reported a $935 shortage in accounts at the Girls' Industrial School near Delaware for a 1948-53 audit period.

Criticizing records at the state institution, the report said:

"... The records and books of accounts of the GIS headed by Mrs. Evelyn R. Ethell of Findlay, superintendent, were at the time the inspection began not in condition to be audited, and the necessary bookkeeping was done to make a proper audit by the state auditor's staff ...

"Inasmuch as a large portion of the disbursements and practically all the receipts were in cash (not checks) supporting data were very vital. Proper supports for disbursements, whether by cash or check, were conspicuous by their absence.

"A diligent search was made for paid invoices, receipted bills, requisitions, and similar supporting records, but few were found. Those found were not filed in order, but tossed into envelopes and cartons."

The examiner noted office funds were out of balance when W. B. Gordon became chief clerk.

"Mr. Gordon stated that he had a file basket of unpaid invoices, some of them one and two years past due, when he took office," the examiner said in his report to State Auditor James A. Rhodes.

John R. Ferguson, chief of the division of juvenile research in the state welfare department, said on taking office Feb. 1, 1949, he was told the GIS accounts were the most confused of the more than 40 welfare institutions, the examiner reported.

Women Voters Program

The federal budget will be under discussion on the Voters' Voice program to be presented at 4:30 p.m. today by the Marion League of Women Voters over Radio Station WMRN. Mrs. Harold R. Fetter, moderator, will have as her guest Mrs. Durward Myers.

Radio and Television

By John Crosby

Drink Your Milk, Kiddies

There is a growing number of TV performers on local stations around the country whose life work —much to their surprise in most cases — is sitting in front of a TV camera talking to thousands of devoted small fry who hang on every word. Their influence is phenomenal. On WNBQ in Chicago, Johnny Coons tells stories to and eats lunch with Chicago school kids every day. The kids insist on eating what Johnny eats, so he obligingly tells Mother what to order the day before.

J. CROSBY

In New York, Herb Sheldon, who has had all sorts of jobs in radio and TV, seems to have settled into a happy groove with two TV shows and a radio show all beamed at the tiny ones. There's the "Herb Sheldon Show" on WNBT from 12 noon to 1, and WNBC from 1:30 to 2:30 daily; and "Saturday," in the "Today" spot on WNBT from 7 to 9 Saturday mornings.

-:-

WITH THE AID of two puppets, Egbert, a bookworm, and Ummily, Sheldon keeps the kids enthralled and stimulates such polite and cooperative behavior on the part of his fans that their parents are stunned. First sign that Sheldon was developing rather monumental influence with the kids came in the mail from grateful parents that began pouring in soon after the show started.

Some excerpts from letters from mothers:

"My young daughters, who are your devoted fans, urge me each day to write to you. They don't care about what I write as long as I do send you a letter."

"Richard wants me to tell you that he fractured his right arm and had to have a bone-grafting operation three weeks ago. But the time spent in the hospital and even the heavy cast are compensated for by his seeing you every day."

"My three children just love you. You do a wonderful job improving their table manners."

"MY SON OF THREE years listens to everything you say; in fact you taught him to eat sandwiches and he does exactly like you with his milk."

"I hav ebeen meaning to thank you for speaking to the children about spilling their milk on the living room floor. Billy and Richie, ages four and three years, will do anything you tell them to, from moving away from the TV set to washing their hands and face. They even tell us how we should eat."

One day last November, Herb asked the kids to let him know what they thought they ought to be thankful for on Thanksgiving. He was buried under 175,000 pieces of mail, mostly cartoons and drawings. That's a lot of mail. Wonder how Herb makes out with his own kids (he has four). Probably no better than the rest of us.

BOB AND RAY are still spoofing everybody else's show in their own happy fashion on their own nightly show in New York (WABC-TV, 6:45 p.m. EST). Not long ago Ray played an ex-zoo keeper whose life was unfolded before him by Bob in a takeoff on Ralph Edwards' "This Is Your Life."

They brought in a bird, first, then a chimp that Ray hadn't seen in years, and things got pretty emotional as they always do on "This Is Your Life." But Ray really broke down when Bob handed him what looked like a stuffed weasel, a particular pet of Ray's in some zoo where he's worked many years before.

The other night Bob and Ray presented some TV awards. One went to the Musical Arranger for Greatest Fights of the Century, another to Toast of the Town for Best Audience Participation Show. Best Script Writer went to "Lydia Boomer who does all of J. Fred Muggs' material." And the Late Show was voted Best Foreign Languard, Show.

Guthery Will Appear As Guest Cook on TV

Howard Guthery of 450 Delaware Ave. will be a guest on the new Kitchen Fair television program Tuesday at 1 p.m. over Station WBNS-TV, Channel 10, in Columbus.

Mr. Guthery is the first of five prominent Marion men who have been selected to appear on the program for which Jeanne Shea is hostess. The show co-ordinator is Ann Hutziker.

During the 30-minute program, Mr. Guthery will prepare his favorite recipe, Welsh rarebit, with variations.

Grain Quotations

CHICAGO (AP) — Most grains opened firm on the Board of Trade today with the distant soybean contracts showing wide gains.

Wheat started unchanged to ⅝ cent higher, March $2.20⅝-¾, corn ¼ lower to ⅛ higher, March $1.50⅝, oats unchanged to ⅜ higher, March 75½, and soybeans ¾ to 6¾ higher, March $3.37-3.37½.

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market pulled ahead today with a majority of trading interest centered in a handful of individual issues.

Gains and losses were mostly fractional. Individually strong stocks pushed up to between 1 and 4 points upon occasion.

In the steady to higher class were the railroads, utilities, oils, coppers, aircrafts, chemicals, radio-television issues, airlines, and the motion pictures.

Among higher stocks were American Telephone, Southern Pacific, Union Oil of California, Chrysler, Goodrich, Douglas Aircraft, Radio Corp., Westinghouse Electric, and American Tobacco.

Indochina Air Team Headed By Ohio Colonel

TOURANE AIR BASE, Indochina, (AP)—The 252 U. S. airmen and officers who are helping the French and their allies keep the planes flying for the fight against the Communist-led Vietminh can hear the rebels' gunfire but never get into the fray.

Lt. Col. Walter A. Miller of Waynesburg, Ohio, veteran U. S. Air Force pilot and trouble shooter, is in overall command of the 136 airmen and 9 officers at this base called "Little America" on the coast of central Annam and of another unit farther north. The second unit is composed of 103 airmen and 4 officers and is stationed at Do Son, southeast of Haiphong in northern Indochina.

The "Little America" unit came here at the urgent request of the French to service the B26 light bombers which have proved so useful in plastering rebel columns and supply lines. The men at Do Son work on the C47 transports vital for dropping paratroops on Vietminh-threatened key points as the rebel attacks develop in sprawling Indochina.

Like the congressmen and others back home, the American technicians have their opinions pro and con as to whether they should be this close to a shooting war with which they are not directly connected. But whatever they think about it, they are doing a job that satisfies their own sense of efficiency and pleases the French.

Fair Board, Citizen Committee To Meet

A special session of the Marion County Fair Board will be held at 8 p.m. tonight in the Coliseum to discuss plans for the 1954 Marion County Fair.

The board will meet with a citizens committee representing a group of 4-H Club leaders, county agricultural teachers and farmers which met Feb. 19. This committee was appointed to ask the fair board questions about plans for the fair and to seek, possibly, a delay in building construction in order that a long-range improvement plan can be worked out. The committee's plan is for state agricultural engineers to be called in to study the fairgrounds and recommend changes.

The fair board has planned to construct a building to house the 4-H Club displays.

The committee is composed of James Johnson, Loren Fulton, Ed Parrott, Archie Bishop, Charles Might and Dallas Cornett.

LEGAL NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Hospital Commissioners at the office of E. L. Mitchell, Secretary, Citizens Building in Marion, Ohio, until 12 o'clock noon, Eastern Standard Time, of Wednesday, the 31st day of March, 1954, for Office Furniture and Equipment, X-Ray Equipment and Dental Clinic Equipment for the Marion General Hospital.

Each bid must be enclosed in a sealed envelope, endorsed with the name of the bidder and the class of Equipment covered by the bid.

Bids will be publicly opened and read aloud at 12:30 o'clock P.M., E.S.T., of the 31st day of March, 1954, at the City Building in Marion, Ohio.

Copies of the specifications and other proposed contract documents are on file and open to public inspection at the Secretary's office, Citizens Building in Marion, Ohio.

One set of contract documents may be obtained without charge by each prospective bidder from E. L. Mitchell, Secretary.

Each bid shall be accompanied with a bond, executed by a surety company, conditioned that if the contract be awarded on the bid tendered, then such bond shall secure any difference between the amount of such bid and the next higher bid, as required by Section 749.12 of the Revised Code of the State of Ohio, in case of the failure or refusal by the bidder to enter into a contract according to his bid, within such reasonable time as the Board may determine. The performance of each contract shall be secured by a surety company contract bond, approved by the Owner in an amount equal to 100% of the contract price.

No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of 30 days after the opening thereof.

The right is reserved by the Board of Hospital Commissioners to reject any or all bids and to waive informalities.

Board of Hospital Commissioners
City-County, Marion, Ohio.
By: E. L. Mitchell, Secretary.

Did You Know

Most fathers are so selfish they won't share the baby's bright sayings with everybody at the office, but by the time they're grandfathers they've learned to be more generous.

New York's Hotel Edison will play a record of barnyard sounds for country guests who can't sleep in the city. On the other hand, we know a traveling salesman, accustomed to hotels, who can't sleep at home unless he turns on a recording of elevators clanging, dishes rattling, freight trains crashing and drunks yelling.

—:—

Sort of like these whistles pitched so high that only dogs can hear them is the public clamor for him to run, inaudible to anyone but the candidate.

Girl, 16, Is Fatally Wounded by Pistol

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP)—State police reported a 16-year-old girl was fatally wounded last night while she and her boy friend were examining a .22-caliber pistol similar to one they had just seen on a television mystery.

Trooper Clyde Tucker said after a preliminary investigation the shooting apparently was accidental.

He said Linda Ann Lewis and her boy friend, William Eugene Pyle, 17, both of Hagerstown, were watching television at the home of Samuel Berger, 21, of Williamsport, with Berger and his date. Pyle remarked there was a pistol in the bedroom similar to one they had just seen.

While they were examining it, Tucker said, the pistol went off. The bullet struck Miss Lewis in the left chest.

Teachers Club To Meet

A meeting of the Marion Schoolmasters, social club of male teachers in Marion City schools, will be held today at 7:30 p.m. in Taft Junior High School. Games and refreshments will make up the program.

About 65 teachers and administrators belong to the club. Organized about 15 years ago, the group holds monthly social meetings and engages in sports and picnic activities. President of the Schoolmasters is Raymond Hoops, arts and printing instructor at Harding High School.

'American Rulers' Back McCarthy, Soviets Say

LONDON (AP)—The Soviet government newspaper Izvestia said today developments so far in the row between U.S. Army Secretary Robert T. Stevens and Sen. McCarthy prove the Wisconsin senator "has the full backing of his country's rulers."

"The latter have need of McCarthy and McCarthy knows this," said the article, which was quoted by Moscow radio. "That's why he continues to indulge his wild amusement with their blessing."

Police Nab Father After Son, 3, Gives Hiding Place Away

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Officers, seeking to serve six traffic warrants on Theodore Martin Sr., went to his home Saturday.

They said Mrs. Martin assured officer Jeremiah Taylor that Martin, an auto mechanic, was not at home.

But 3-year-old Theodore Jr. knew differently. "Daddy's in the front room," he proudly told the policeman.

Taylor went into the living room. There were empty chairs, a rug on the floor, an unoccupied sofa—but no Martin Sr.

"Look in the sofa," little Ted shouted gleefully.

And there was Papa Martin underneath.

He was booked at city prison and held in lieu of $35 bail.

Said Martin, "That's all right. I've always told Ted to tell the truth."

2 X-Ray Machines Used In Examining Elephant

LOS ANGELES (AP)—It took two doctors, three assistants, and two X-ray machines to find what was wrong with a 15-year-old girl.

She is Joyce, a 300-pound elephant in Griffith Park Zoo.

"She'll be laid up about a month," Dr. Victor Thersten, veterinarian, said. He and Dr. Willard D. Ommert said she had suffered a strained ligament in the left hind heel.

The veterinarians yesterday used the two machines strapped together because rays from only one couldn't penetrate the foot-thick ankle.

Saturday is the most dangerous day of the week to drive your car, according to the National Safety Council. Tuesday is the safest.

Now there are 4 times as many Americans over 65 as in 1900

More and more people are living to a healthy, active old age. In 1900, there were only 3 million people aged 65 or over. Today, there are about 13 million.

That more people are living longer is but one of many significant changes that have come about in recent years. In fact, our whole scale of living is changing. We're raising larger families. We're building more homes. We're earning more money, enjoying more leisure time. As a result, we now have much more to protect.

And the life insurance business is keeping pace and is constantly growing more flexible to meet our new needs.

For example, the life insurance companies have developed a wide variety of retirement plans. Millions of people are using them to provide income when working days are over.

Of course, the main reason why people buy life insurance is to cover the expenses that usually occur at death and to provide an income for the family. Beyond that, hundreds of thousands of families are also using life insurance to make sure the mortgage will be paid off, or to assure funds for the children's education.

A suggestion: Have your needs or circumstances changed? Have you looked over your life insurance to see how it stacks up with your present way of living and the goals you and your family have set for yourselves?

Popular

ARRANGEMENTS in advance of necessity have become increasingly popular during the last decade or two. A rational explanation might be that frank discussion of funeral arrangements is commonplace, nowadays, and a greater number of people realize that advance arrangements relieve those left behind of many a major decision. We are pleased to offer our confidential counsel without charge or obligation.

Ohio Officials Plan Roadside Junk Cleanup

COLUMBUS — Ohio's highway department has declared an all-out war on roadside trash Highway Director S. O. Linzell said thousands of dollars are spent each year by the Operations Division because of the untidy habits of some motorists and their passengers.

Said Linzell, "Besides being a bad habit, this is a violation of existing State laws." He cited a section of the Ohio General Code which demands that "Whoever places or disposes of in any manner any garbage, waste or peelings of vegetables or fruits, rubbish, ashes, cans, bottles, wire, paper, cartons, boxes, parts of automobiles, wagons, furniture, glass, oil, or anything else of an unsightly or unsanitary nature along or near or on any public road, street, parkway, park drive, highway, ditch or any land adjoining any public road or highway or ditch except on land provided by a zoning commission, city ordinance or other governmental authority, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, unless directed to do so by public officials on special clean up days'

C W McCaughey, deputy director of operations added that dumping of trash along state routes causes expensive damage to mowing equipment.

The highway officials reflected that trashy highways make a poor impression on tourists, and that natives of the state were likely to take more pride and interest in their highways if they were kept neat and clean

As a result, the Highway Department will attempt to bring the problem before the Ohio public through a publicity campaign

Linzell concluded If this doesn't work, then the Highway Department will have to resort to stringent enforcement of the anti-trash law. Success in this program will not only clean up the highways, but will save the department some money."

Maryland Boy, 6, Dies Despite Surgeon's Effort

CUMBERLAND, Md (AP)—Six-year-old Walter Thomas Brown Jr. died at Sacred Heart Hospital here last night, 11 days after a surgeon had made a dramatic attempt to save his life by massaging his heart

The boy's heart had stopped during a tonsillectomy. A surgeon hurriedly summoned from an adjoining operation, made a quick chest incision and massaged the heart to restore circulation

But the five minutes Tommy's brain was without oxygen caused too much damage, a hospital spokesman said last night

Bishop Requests K. of C. To Charter Interracial Council

CLEVELAND (AP)—An auxiliary bishop wants the Knights of Columbus Supreme Board to give a local interracial K of C council a second chance for a charter

The interracial council was formed after three Negro Catholics were refused membership last year in Cleveland Council 733 of the Knights of Columbus It includes two of the three rejected Negroes

Carrying the controversy to the diocesan weekly newspaper, the Universe Bulletin Bishop Floyd L Begin said in an interview

"The only reason they (Council 733) are keeping them out is their color' the bishop said 'Anyone who denies that is a pussyfooting liar'

Two of the three negro applicants who were turned down started organizing the interracial K of C council here The third Negro raised the Jim Crow question and withdrew, the Universe-Bulletin said.

Two weeks ago meeting in St Louis the K of C Supreme Board rejected an appeal from the interracial council for a charter for its membership of 138, about 2-1 Negro

Supreme Knight Luke Hart of New Haven Conn, said Negroes should apply for membership in existing councils 'like anyone else' and that Negroes have become knights in various parts of the country

Bishop Begin raoped the Supreme Board's action and announced in the Universe-Bulletin that he himself is planning to transfer to the interracial council'

Commissioners Control Purse Strings

Chairman of Board Tells How Big Business of County Is Handled

By EVELYN KRISTOFF

"Custodian of the county's purse strings" is the way Howard McCurdy describes his duties as chairman of the Marion County Board of Commissioners.

Calling the commissioners' office in the Courthouse a "clearing house" for all kinds of requests from county officials and residents, McCurdy explained the wide variety of business transacted by the board.

CONSUMING A GREAT deal of the commissioners' time are roads, ditches, and bridges. Procedure in improving a ditch, for example, not too infrequently takes up a year and one-half or longer.

First a petition requesting the improvement is filed. Then commissioners must view the site of the proposed ditch. Then a hearing of interested taxpayers is called and the engineer's office does the preliminary field work for the project.

After the estimated cost of the improvement is determined, it is apportioned among the taxpayers who stand to benefit from the improvement, and a hearing on these assessments is held. This action is then followed by advertisement for bids for the project.

Only after bids are opened and the contract awarded can commissioners step out of the picture, their job completed.

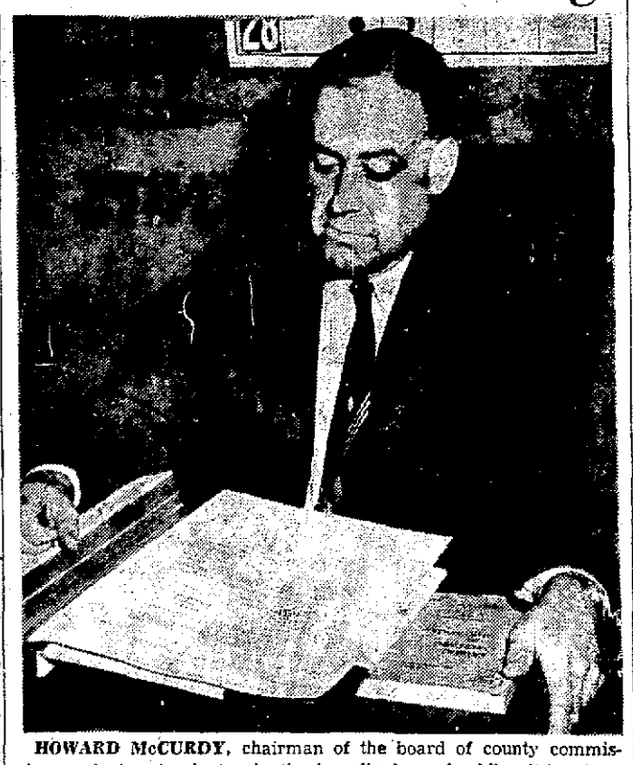
IT'S BIG BUSINESS today — administering the affairs of a county. And to prove it, commissioners can point to the amount of money they appropriated for 1954—$1,044,900.

Their million-dollar responsibilities only begin when they make out the annual budget and appropriations to the various county subdivisions.

In the middle of the summer commissioners start receiving the following year's budget requests from the county offices. Shortly after the first of the year, the county auditor certifies to commissioners the amount of money that will be available for county operation.

That's the time when commissioners start paring down the requests. As McCurdy puts it, "It's like a typical family budget — more money is requested than is available."

This year, for example, total budget requests amounted to over $100,000 more than the auditor's certification.



HOWARD McCURDY, chairman of the board of county commissioners, looks at minutes in the board's journal while sitting in a chair his father used a quarter of a century ago. The late Ora McCurdy served Marion County as commissioner from 1928 to 1938, and his son is currently beginning the second year of his first term as commissioner.

Included among their many other duties is the appointment of their clerk, the dog warden, a deputy apiary inspector, and some of the members of the hospital board and child welfare board.

In the case of the death of county officials, other than judges, commissioners have the authority to appoint someone to succeed them until the next election.

By state law the board of county commissioners must meet at least four times a year, with additional sessions to be held as often as the board deems necessary.

Locally, commissioners have found they must meet regularly each Monday and Thursday in order to transact all the county's business. Walter Guthrie, the board's clerk, is required to keep a full record of the meetings which are recorded in a journal and indexed.

BEING A commissioner seems to run in the McCurdy family. His father, the late Ora McCurdy, served as Marion County commissioner from 1928 to 1938.

Commissioners are elected to four-year terms which are staggered so that one year two are elected and two years later the third is elected. The chairmanship rotates among the three men annually.

McCurdy completed the first year of his first term in January. He and his family reside about five miles north of Marion.

In terms of service, Luther Mitchell is the senior member of the board, having served seven years as a commissioner. His term of office expiring this year, he is a candidate for a third term. He resides east of Marion.

Serving as chairman of the board last year was Ray Reidenbaugh who resides on Gurley Ave. He has served five years on the board.

Harpster Couple Hurt In Three-Car Collision

HARPSTER — Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stumbo of near Harpster were injured Sunday in a three-car collision near Albany, Ga., in which an eight-year-old girl was killed and another person injured, according to an Associated Press report.

Mr. Stumbo, who was driving one of the cars, had several teeth knocked out and was cut on the face and Mrs. Stumbo sustained a bruised knee when a car driven by Sherel B. Miller of Springfield, Ill., went out of control, sideswiped another car and crashed head on into the Stumbo car. They were reported in fair condition today at the Phoebe-Putney Hospital in Albany.

Killed in the crash was Jane Kathleen Miller, daughter of the driver of the one car. Also injured was Mrs. Helen A. Miller, 44.

Musicians Local In Marion Marks 34th Anniversary

A buffet supper followed by music and dancing marked the observance of the 34th anniversary of the organization of Marion Local No. 531, American Federation of Musicians, Sunday night in the Eagles' Hall. Approximately 75 members, their families and friends attended.

Streamers carried out the anniversary theme and decorations for the anniversary cake were musical motifs. An anniversary cake was presented Mrs. Fanny Benson, secretary-treasurer, by Carroll W. Davidson, honorary life member of the local. Mrs. Benson, Mr. Davidson and Bertram D. Myers of Albuquerque, N. M. are the only charter members on the local's roster.

Guests included an orchestra from Mansfield and Jack Sweetman of Circleville, honorary life ber: Sweetman, a former Marion resident, played drums in the old Grand theater here a number of years ag and later toured with some of the top circuses in the country. Music was by all of the orchestras in the local and the Mansfield musicians, and highlighting the evening were performances by Davidson and Sweetman on the drums. The evening concluded with a "jam" session.

Serving as a committee were Robert McMahon, Jack McAdow and Don Lister, and the supper was in charge of Robert Burton and Eddie Beach.

RABBIT HUNT

MORTON, Miss. (UP)—Billy Joe Cooper, three, walked out of his home proudly carrying a new pop gun. Three hours later, his frantic parents, the fire department, the sheriff and several bloodhounds found him in a woods about a mile from home. "I was hunting rabbits, the briar-scratched boy said.

Catskill Staff House At Crossinger's Burns

GROSSINGER, N.Y. (AP)—Seven employes were killed and 26 injured yesterday as flames swept through a staff residence at the widely known Grossinger Hotel and Country Club in the Catskill Mountains.

Prompt action by fire fighters kept the blaze from spreading to other buildings at the resort, which had a weekend guest list of 900. Among them is heavyweight boxing champion Rocky Marciano, who is in training.

Most of the guests apparently slept through the early morning blaze, which took 45 minutes to get under control.

Fire authorities, who were continuing to investigate the cause of the blaze, estimated damage at $3,000.

None of those injured was reported in serious condition today. Many were hurt jumping in their nightclothes from windows of the burning 2½-story stucco-covered frame structure.

The dead were identified as Siegfried Haas, 51; and his wife Erna, 49; David Bernstein, 30, and his wife Hannah, 32; Fannie Rosenthal, 39; Catherine Krick, 45; and Jack Shildkret, 40.

PANCAKE RACE TAKES NEW TURN. Mrs. Bob Dunlap, whose husband is Pancake Day chairman of Liberal, Kans., helps call attention to the hot-cake race on March 2, between her midwest town and Olney, England, by wearing special buttons as earrings. The decorations appear to mystify her boxer dog.

Indian Language New To Police in East Boston

BOSTON (AP)—East Boston police spoke in Italian, French Greek and Portuguese to a little lost boy.

His answer was a rattle of syllables in a language none of them had ever heard.

Just as they were about to call the anthropology department at Harvard, a man rushed into the police station and hugged the little boy.

He said his name was Weldon Patles and had come with his little son Freeman from Newcastle, N.B., a week ago.

"He's a Mic Mac Indian," said the father.

Crawford County Judge Overrules Trial Motion

BUCYRUS — Crawford County Common Pleas Judge John C. Carroll has overruled a motion for a new trial in the action of Roberta P. Gould, Scarsdale, N.Y., against her brother, Robert K. Porter, Mansfield, for a share of the estate of her mother, Mrs. Lydira E. Porter, it was announced here today.

Last December, Judge Carroll ruled for Mrs. Gould and against the defendant, Porter entitling the plaintiff to a share of the estate Mrs. Porter, mother of the parties involved, had willed property in Galion to her son. Mrs. Gould asked that the deed be set aside and that she be awarded an equal share of the property. Porter testified that he spent several thousand dollars caring for his mother, who was 86 at the time of her death.

Pittsburgh Grocer Has Last Laugh on Bandits

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Frank Hasper, a grocery store owner, had the last laugh on three bandits.

One of the men bought some lunch meat and cookies, put them in his pocket and laid a dollar bill on the counter. At the same time, another of the bandit trio said: "This is a stickup."

Hasper shouted to a relative in a nearby room to call police. The men fled, leaving the dollar bill.

All of which meant that Hasper made 48 cents on the deal.

$565 Court Suit Filed Against Pair at Galion

BUCYRUS — Judgment of $565 is asked in an action for money filed in Crawford County Common Pleas Court here against Proctor W. and Julia Conn, both of Galion, as a result of a truck-auto collision west of Mansfield on Route 30-N on Dec. 2, 1953.

Plaintiffs are W. J. Jamerson, Cleveland, owner of the tractor, and Wenham Transportation, Inc., Cleveland, owner of the trailer and lessee of the tractor. The plaintiffs charge that Conn was under the influence of alcohol, speeding and negligent when his car allegedly crushed into the right side of the tractor-trailer.

WHAT TO DO AFTER AN ACCIDENT . . . AND BEFORE IT!

The National Safety Council recently estimated that there will be at least 35,000 traffic deaths in the United States in 1954. But that's only part of the story. There will probably be at least 1,200,000 non-fatal accidents this year from which serious bodily injuries and property damage will result.

Earl J. Andrews

No matter how carefully you drive, the reckless driving of someone else may involve you in one of these accidents. If this happens, here are a few vital DO'S AND DON'TS. Read them! Remember them!

DO—call a doctor or ambulance immediately if anyone is injured and the police if you think necessary.

DO—get (a) names and addresses of driver and passengers of the other car involved, (b) the car's registration number, (c) names and addresses of all witnesses.

DO—report the accident WITHOUT DELAY to your insurance agent.

DON'T—say a word about who was at fault. Impulsive talk on the spot can boomerang legally. Give only information the authorities require.

Drive carefully — Watch out for reckless drivers — Keep your insurance identification card with you at all times. And drive with the comforting knowledge that you carry insurance. If you have the slightest doubt on that score call your insurance agent. It's his job to select the right insurance agent. It's his job to select the right insurance companies and policies to protect you financially. It's your job to protect yourself on the road!

Dulles Has Confidence

John Foster Dulles has gone to the mat with the charge that United States diplomats are always being out-foxed by crafty foreigners.

While reassuring his countrymen that he and his advisers do not intend to sell American prestige down the river at Geneva and did not sell it down the river at Berlin, Secretary Dulles made this statement:

"There is no reason why we should refuse to seek peacefully the results we want merely because of fear we will be outmaneuvred at the conference table . . . Our case is not so poor and our capacity so low that our nation must seek security by sulking in its tent."

It is true, nevertheless, that U. S. diplomats have worked since the time of Benjamin Franklin under the handicap of shaky popular confidence. What is remarkable is that they have been able to do so much with so little support. Some of the things they tried must have turned out all right, or the United States would have perished. Surely the Republic has not survived in spite of its diplomacy.

Secretary Dulles knows what the real trouble is. Except for the infrequent times when everybody can agree on foreign policy, every diplomatic move is contrary to the wishes of about half the American people.

When his job is further complicated by a division inside the Republican party, it is no wonder Mr. Dulles thinks he needs to say something in behalf of his own capacity for diplomacy.

A secretary of state either must have complete confidence in himself or resign his post. Those who don't believe Mr. Dulles should resign can hope only that he may continue to have the courage and the wit to hold all the crafty foreigners at bay while striving to advance the best interests of the United States against the opposition of many of his countrymen.

War Boomers

Some of his best friends in the Democratic party should tell Stephen A. Mitchell, their national chairman, about words that would be better left unsaid.

Mitchell is saying the outcome of the congressional elections this will turn directly on whether or not voters feel they are better off financially. He says there is no other issue.

At the risk of being accused by over-sensitive Democrats of rough talk, there are Americans shocked by this kind of cynical politicking. It is as offensive to them as it was when Harry Truman told farmers in 1948 that if they didn't vote for him they weren't grateful for the public funds he had helped to give them.

It is a matter of economic record that the Democrats induced inflation in the United States with deficit financing and war—chiefly war.

They did not start World War II, which hailed them out of their inability to rout the depression of the thirties. They did not start the Korean war which bailed them out of their inability to rout the recession in 1949.

But they took credit for the war booms which concealed the fact from millions of thoughtless Americans that high wages and prices were being bought with the blood of their own sons and the treasure of their own society.

The Democrats did nothing to prepare the American people for the inevitable readjustment to peacetime living in which double-time wages would be unheard of and production lines geared to wartime speedups would slow down to normal rates.

There is only one conceivable way now, in the light of the Democratic party's record, that Chairman Mitchell could exploit a financial issue in politics this year—or any other year. He could arrange to start a new war of his party returned to power.

We don't belive he is thinking of any such thing. If so, he should quit talking as if he blamed Republicans for picking up the pieces after the two wars which gave Democrats the longest inflationary joy ride in modern history.

Are School Teachers Amusable?

Sometimes the stuffy attitudes of people who are not amused by what is intended to be amusing get funnier than the original material.

A Cleveland schoolmaster was saying with pursed lips the other day that he fails to see anything funny in two television shows which rely on school-teaching situations for much of their humor. He charged that such programs give kiddies a warped viewpoint about the teaching profession.

While it's possible that his children, if any, can't take a joke, either, and have misled this schoolmaster, he has missed the point of the two shows he referred to—"Mister Peepers" and "Our Miss Brooks."

If millions of TV viewers didn't feel warmly sympathetic toward schoolteachers and their problems, neither show would have won a following.

The sincerest praise given the teaching profession in the United States is reflected in the assumption that its members can joke and be joked about — that they are amusable.

Dulles Sets Fast Pace

By James Marlow

Secretary of State on Man-Killing Schedule

WASHINGTON (AP)—John Foster Dulles, 66 last Friday, works like a man trying to keep two steps ahead of a fire. In his case, it's the Communist fire.

He has been secretary of state just over a year. In that time he has traveled 83,361 miles in pursuit of peace and American security, the equivalent of more than three times around the globe.

He's been all over Western Europe—including Paris three times, London twice, Bonn twice—and to North Africa, the Middle East, as far west as Korea, as far east as India, and to New York five times.

His routine is: up by 7 a.m., home by 7 p.m., and to bed by midnight. His recreation is limited mostly to reading detective stories, watching birds, and swimming when he can.

He has a sharp sense of public relations, reads four or five papers a day, has made national broadcasts several times, plus speeches before organizations. He's had more news conferences than any other Eisenhower Cabinet member.

He's had 24 of them at the State Department, and others outside Washington.

At 8:15 a.m. he reaches the office. At 9 he has a 15-minute conference with his undersecretary, Walter Bedell Smith. At 9:15 he has a staff conference with Smith and his assistant secretaries.

At 10, a couple of days a week, he goes to the White House for a Cabinet meeting or a meeting of the National Security Council. During the day he must receive foreign diplomats or anyone else of enough importance to need his ear.

During his first year, the State Department underwent its biggest shakeup in 20 years.

Besides being ultimately responsible for the handling of friends and foes everywhere, Dulles must deal with Congress, many times personal appearances to ask for money for his department or to explain or defend his handling of foreign affairs.

It hasn't been a completely blissful relationship. He's been criticized in the Capitol. He's had some struggles with Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis).

He takes work home with him. Sometimes on Saturday afternoons —he works at the office Saturday mornings—or on Sunday he has a stenographer come out to his house for dictation.

He attends perhaps two diplomatic dinners a week, besides having friends in for private dinners. And State Department people and government officials sometimes visit him at home for uninterrupted conferences.

This display of energy, according to those around him, is not new. He gave an example of it 12 days ago after battling Russia's Foreign Minister Molotov at the Big Four conference in Berlin.

That conference broke up Feb. 18. At 8 o'clock that night Dulles flew out of Berlin, stopped at Bonn to talk with West Germany's Chancellor Adenauer, took off again at 11:3 p.m., stopped at Bermuda the next day for a swim in 57-degree water, and arrived in Washington that night.

On that trip home, his aides say, he dictated to a secretary some of the report he made to the nation last Wednesday night. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday last week he held sessions with congressional leaders to explain what had happened in Berlin. Somewhere in those three days, with help, he completed his report for Wednesday night.

Yesterday he left for Caracas for the Inter-American Conference and on April 26 is expected to go to Geneva for a conference with Britain, France, Russia and Communist China on Korea and Indochina.

Besides the places mentioned earlier in this story, in 1953 he went to Rome, The Hague, Brussels, Luxembourg, Egypt, Israel, Jordan, Syria, Lebanon, Iraq, Saudi Arabia, India, Turkey, Greece, Libya, Princeton, N.J. (for a speech), Japan, Boston (speech), St.Louis (twice for speeches), Denver (for a conference with President Eisenhower, Syracuse, N.Y. (speech), Cleveland (speech), Bermuda (for Big Three foreign ministers conference).

Automatic Shift

By TRUMAN TWILL

In the automobile showroom where we closed the deal for the proverbial used car driven carefully by one fussy driver who never went for a spin unless the sun was shining, they had a real old-timer — a 1926 sedan.

It looked mighty silly alongside the sleek 1954 dreamboats with their pastel colors, two and three-tone upholstering, view windows and central heating systems. It was a nostalgic jolt.

I rode in one just like it and in other older than it is — and they are still remembered. The first ride was in a high-wheeled Rambler. There were rides in Maxwells, Dorts and Reos. In 1918 our family bought its first passenger car — a "convertible" Reo, with side panels which could be removed in summer for an effect something like today's "hard top" convertibles.

When the panels were out, their place was taken by side curtains which were folded and stored in a compartment in the roof of the car. That old Reo was a great car; it would still be chugging along if it hadn't been melted up to make some of its numerous successors.

Its first successor was an Essex Terraplane, which introduced the idea that the body of an automobile should be integrated with the chassis. It was the first car, if memory does not fail, to have a steel floor, instead of removable wooden floor boards which rattled and let in the air.

The Terraplane was followed by a Packard Clipper — a cherry red one with interior appointments which suggested what interior decorators ultimately would do to snazz up the appointments of what had been grossly neglected by the grease monkeys who made the early cars.

The four other automobiles in my life, up to the current one, were the first generation of Henry Ford's Model A —, a sport coupe with a simulated collapsible top and stainless steel headlights and trim; a straight-eight Hudson when that engine design was still in the experimental stage; a Plymouth and a Buick. The current go-devil is a Pontiac. All were good cars. They performed beyond reasonable expectations. They could take it.

Along with them I have equally good impressions of Chevrolets, Nashes, Oldsmobiles, Dodges, Wintons, Peerlesses and Hupmobiles. Also of a White truck I helped to drive one summer, a car called a Star and a robins-egg-blue Cadillac roadster with a hand-pressure pump to get the gas flowing for easy starting.

Not to mention Stanley Steamers, Brushes and the Stutz Bear Cat—all familiar sights and sounds in our small-town neighborhood in the days when every new car was driven out to Hanna's Hill to discover if it could pull this half-mile-long incline in high gear.

Hanna's Hill would never be noticed today. It would be a rise in the road for one of the 1954 beauties — a casual interval between taps on the power brakes, the raising and lower of a power-motivated window, a twist of the power-steering apparatus and a surge of the automatic transmission.

Seeing old 1926 jalopy was a jolt. It's a museum piece. But I rode in one just like it and in others much older. And there are days when anyone who accuses me of being a museum pieces is going to have to dust me off to prove it. If he can catch me. . . .

Me and my automatic shift, that is.

Wyatt's Tavern was included in Fort Morrow and was run as a hotel until about 1840. It was built by Nathaniel Wyatt Sr., before the War of 1812, and was located on the old Military Road. Fort Morrow was located about three-quarters of a mile south of Waldo and was built by Captain Taylor. The tavern was a two-story brick building 20 by 36-in dimensions. The fort was surrounded by an inclosure of pickets, made of slabs three inches thick and five or six inches in height. On top of one of the blockhouses was painted "Fort Morrow."

Digging Him Out

Resistance at New High

By Norman Lindhurst

BONN

American intelligence has concluded that the Soviets are sitting on a powder keg.

The Russians are meeting open hatred everywhere behind the Iron Curtain. Passive resistance is universally evident. Sabotage and open revolt, while less frequent, flare in dramatic fashion.

East Germany is charged for another explosion like that of June 17.

Never before have the satellite nations seemed more likely to erupt.

These findings were reached by intelligence in a broad analysis of Red resistance behind the Iron Curtain. The study was carried out for the guidance of the American delegation at the recent Berlin Big Four Conference.

The report cited the scuttling of a 21,000-ton Soviet ship on the Baltic coast. The Blue Express, the luxury Soviet Moscow - to-Berlin train, has been dynamited thrice in the last few years. Three Russian divisions have been moved into Poland to bolster Marshal Rokossovsky's Polish forces.

Since the arrests and trials last June, East German Red police have sought to crush opposition. This winter they have tried 1,700 men and women. There have been 81 big trials, six death sentences and 74 life terms.

Resistance has proved impossible to quell. Bridges and rails have been dynamited on lines used by Soviet reparations trains. A giant swastika has been burned with a torch on a wall of Communist headquarters in Eisenach.

There have been plots to blow up factory machinery, to poison party leaders in Saxony, to sabotage Soviet tanks and aircraft.

Resistance bands set off rockets almost daily. Couriers ply the highways dropping off bundles of materials for the partisans.

U. S. agents, conducting their own polls behind the Curtain, have concluded that 85 to 90 per cent of the population opposes the Russians.

East of the Oder River, in Poland, anti-Red guerrillas are active. In Slovakia there is an anti-Red underground of 25,000 active guerrillas and four times that number of sympathizers. Sabotage flares sporadically at the Skoda Works, the Red armaments center at Pilsen.

Ironically — and this stings the Russians most — the fiercest open resistance behind the Curtain rages in the Ukraine. Armed bands of the Ukranian Liberation Legion control up to one-third of the republic, according to the intelligence report.

The anti-Red war in the Ukraine is not new. It has been going on for 17 years. In that time the Soviets have not been able to master the guerrillas.

In Rumania, the government has been battling a series of incendiary fires in the Ploesti oilfields. Guerrillas rove the Transylvania Alps, looting trains and supply columns. Bulgaria and Hungary are relatively quiet. Even there, sabotage and work slowdowns occur daily if usually on a minor scale.

Here, no less than in East Germany and Poland, there is wide evidence of passive resistance. The easygoing Hungarians and Bulgarians are reported to reason: "The Russians will hang themselves. Why take risks trying to hasten the inevitable?" The theory does not square with the appraisal of American intelligence.

The cold facts of the cold war, warns U.S. Intelligence, are that an explosion behind the Iron Curtain might visit a catastrophe on the West as well as on the Russians. There aren't enough weapons in the hands of the resistance to give them the ghost of a chance against Soviet military forces.

Their annihilation could destroy the spirit of freedom in Eastern Europe for years to come.

The question the West is trying to answer is: How to exploit anti-Red resistance to force the Soviets to relax their grip on Eastern Europe — without striking the spark that might ignite the powder keg?

Millions From Pennies

By EDWARD K. NELLOR

The administration's penny pinching is beginning to pay off, according to the House Appropriations Committee and the General Services Administration, which buys supplies for all federal agencies, including some for the Defense Department. Many of the economy actions are considered minor by government officials but all insist that when added together the saving to the taxpayer will be considerable.

For instance, in Washington rental office space alone, the government has reduced its annual bill by $1,000,000 so far. It simply moved government workers back into vacant government owned buildings.

In 1953 the federal government purchased 97,000 office filing cabinets. Nobody knows why now, so GSA was able to cut its anticipated purchases for this year to 8,000.

In another agency it was discovered that small business contractors were tacking a $200 legal fee on government contracts. An investigation revealed that most businessmen had to pay out this amount just to have a lawyer explain what a certain section of the contract meant. The language was simplified and the $200 legal fee abolished.

Previously government agencies purchased a total of 25 types of wooden chairs, complete with 21 different specifications, all prepared at government expense. Now it buys one type of wooden chair and nobody has yet complained of being uncomfortable over the change.

Wastepaper baskets at one time arrived in Washington from 40 different manufacturers. Upon examination of the wastepaper basket deluge GSA decided government workers could survive if only seven varieties were purchased.

At one time government employes were able to look at themselves in 28 different types of wash room mirrors. This has been trimmed to three varieties. Eighteen varieties of paper towels were also being purchased but since early winter government employes have been content to dry their hands on just seven kinds.

For government red tape there were 10 types of paper clips available in government offices. This has been cut to four models, although there is no evidence the red tape output has diminished.

Just so federal workers would have some place to hang their hats and coats the government was buying 136 different models of clothing lockers. The GSA looked over the hat and coat situation and cut the number of models to ten.

The same happened with blotting paper. There were 24 kinds in office supply closets. Now only five different kinds are stocked.

So it goes, from the Pentagon to the White House. Even the offices of congressmen have been affected by the penny pinching. For some reason government purchasing agents bought ink in one and three-quarter ounce bottles for Congress. They cost more and contained one-quarter less ink per bottle than the taxpayers were getting for less money. GSA now buys the standard size, which is good enough for the taxpayers putting up the cash.

What has it all saved? Few can tell. GSA estimates that the wooden chair buying curtailment saved $2,500,000 in 1953 alone.

At the Commerce Department it was discovered that 146 copies of the federal budget were being purchased at a cost of $6.76 each. The new bosses discovered it could buy just the part of the budget affecting the department for $1 a copy.

The Post Office Department had been shipping cement posts for mail boxes from Baltimore to the West Coast, at the cost of $34 shipping charge per post. It now makes them on the West Coast at a cost of $3.50 per post. Same with Post Office Department mail truck frames. They were being shipped to Birmingham, Ala. for special heat treatment. It was discovered this is unnecessary. Saving: $40,000 on one shipment alone.

The GSA, itself, which supplies the bulk of government office needs, also found that its own house could stand a little thrift. GSA had been operating its own auto and truck repair shop, with 25 employes. It turned the job over to local garages. Saving: $95,830 annually.

Here's the true explanation of the postponed Stevens-McCarthy video clash: Ike, just back from golf, saw McCarthy on the green. Zwicker using a wrong club and Stevens 250 yards away trying for a hole in one. . . . He realized at once that it was no game for television fans. . . . Also, little as he might like Joe's golf form, the President wanted to be sure nobody under him was put in the position of caddying for the Brooklyn dentist. . . .

A fight fan entered the Garden by mistake during the show and fled, exclaiming, "There was no gong and no announcement. . . . Just a bang! . . . and the joint was full of live ammunition, rods, seals, fish and tall stories. . . . I got out without even finding out who the contestants was." . . .

News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO — It was Wednesday, March 1, 1944.

American troops of the Sixth Army pushed far into Japan's south Pacific defenses with a bold landing on the Admiralty islands under the personal supervision of Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

First Sgt. Donald F. Buckley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Buckley of 652 E. Center St. had been cited for gallantry in action in the Italian battle sector according to word received by his wife, Mrs. Patricia Buckley, and his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa Brown of 629 Park St. left for Hollywood, Calif., where they were to visit their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rupp.

BLE Schedule Protest Strike

Walkout on Southern Railway Due Saturday

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers today scheduled a strike for Saturday against the Southern Railway System.

Guy L. Brown, grand chief engineer of the independent union, said the dispute concerned "safety and relief from poisonous gases, and overloading of diesel power..."

He added the union sought to "preserve safety regulations cutting down monoxide fumes over portions of this road made dangerous in this respect by many tunnels."

The road, he continued, wants to "eliminate tonnage and length of train restrictions thereby increasing hazards from stalling in tunnels."

Brown asserted the dispute was not primarily over the length of trains."

Southern Railway, he said, "simply notified us last October that it would no longer subscribe to a compromise agreement on the subject we signed with them April 16, 1941."

The road operates in North Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, South Carolina, Tennessee, Ohio, Florida, Kentucky, Louisiana, Virginia, Missouri and the District of Columbia.

Member Drive Begun Here by Concert Group

An attraction of the Marion Community Concert Association's 1954-55 season will be the Rochester Symphony Orchestra, it was announced today as captains and workers launched their 10th membership campaign.

Work kits were distributed at a meeting of officers, co-chairmen, captains and workers Saturday night at the YMCA. This week is designated as renewal week, when membership holders will have an opportunity to renew their subscriptions, and next week will be a general campaign.

Seventeen captains and approximately 80 workers are engaged in the two-week campaign which will close March 8. Reports will be received both before and after the concert to be given by Szymon Goldberg violinist, Thursday night in the Harding High School gymnasium.

Captains are Mrs. George Lane, Mrs. T. L. Berg, Mrs. Carter M. Patton and Mrs. William Thomas.

The 1954-55 series will be presented in the Harding High School, the board of directors announced. This decision was made after serious consideration by the members who point out such advantages as a saving of up to $900 which can be applied to the securing of talent, ample parking facilities, a large stage, and near perfect accoustics. They report that artists have given high praise to the setting, accoustics and piano. Tentative plans for the remodeling of the stage at the Palace theater also entered into the board's decision to continue the concerts at the school.

As compared with 1939, the average American in 1953 ate 1,250 per cent more frozen vegetables, 900 per cent more baby foods, 738 per cent more frozen fruit and fruit juices, 218 per cent more canned fruit juices, 80 per cent more canned soup and 71 per cent more ice cream.

Burglars Do It Again

LYNN, Mass. (AP)—Irked because his ice cream store was burglarized twice during the past week, George Roland, 34, stood guard with a rifle all Saturday night. Nary a thief showed up.

Just as he dozed off yesterday morning, the telephone rang.

It was police reporting another break at his place. Thieves stole nine cartons of cigarettes.

Deputy Holds Top Hand

FRANKLIN, Ohio (AP) — When Ralph Palmer entered a cafe near Franklin yesterday, one of the poker players said:

"Come on in, partner, you'll make a sixth."

Palmer broke up the game with the winning card—his badge as chief deputy sheriff.

Motor vehicles in the United States traveled about 547,000,000,000 miles in 1953. At 50 miles an hour, it would take one car 1,250,000 years to cover that distance.

Bolander-Robinson Vows Exchanged in Local Church

The first EUB Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Ruth Evelyn Bolander and Donald Lee Robinson Sunday, Feb. 21. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Bolander of 851 Congress St. and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Robinson of near Marysville.

Floor baskets filled with white gladioli were at the chancel rail and altar vases held bouquets of matching flowers. Candelabra holding lighted tapers were caught with huckleberry foliage and family pews were marked with ribbon bows and greenery.

The pastor, Dr. L. E. Ames, officiated for the 2:30 o'clock ceremony and the wedding music was by Mrs. B. K. Hill Jr., organist, and Ted Disbennett, vocalist.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride wore a ballerina-length gown of white satin and Chantilly lace. Over her strapless bodice she wore an Eton jacket, button-trimmed down the front, long sleeves ending in points over the hands and accented with a Peter Pan collar. Her fingertip veil was held with a Juliet cap trimmed in seed pearls and she carried a white Bible topped with a purple orchid showered with a cascade of white carnations. Her jewelry was a triple strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Frederick Ervin, was the matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Grace Snowden, Miss Ardeth Walker and Miss Dixie Swihart. Their gowns were of white nylon styled with balerina-length skirts and off-the-shoulder V-necklines. They carried bouquets of Dutch Iris and the same flowers were caught at one side of their maline headbands. Mrs. Irvin's bouquet was tied with yellow satin ribbon and the bridesmaids' with blue ribbon.

Max Robinson of Marysville, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man and ushers were Richard Parrott and Glen Steinmetz of Marysville and Frederick C. Ervin.

MRS. DONALD L. ROBINSON

The bride's mother wore a navy blue dressmaker suit and Mrs. Robinson's costume was of rose and gray lace. Both wore corsages of white carnations.

When the couple left on a wedding trip to Florida the bride was wearing a light blue suit, black accessories and her wedding orchid. They will make their home near Marysville.

The bride was graduated in 1951 from Harding High School and has been employed in the credit office of Sears Roebuck & Co. The bridegroom, a graduate of Magnetic Springs High School in 1949, served two years with the U.S. Army. He is engaged in farming.

Guests were from Columbus, Marysville, Cleveland, Rockford, Bowling Green, Richwood, Lima, Kenton, Westerville, Ostrander, Caledonia and Mt. Gilead.

The rehearsal party was at the Bolander home Saturday evening. Miss Bolander gave her attendants pearl necklaces and Mr. Robinson gave the best man a tie clasp and tie and the ushers cufflinks and ties.

FINED AT GALION

GALION — A fine of $15 and costs was paid by Charles E. Willacker, 45, of Galion Saturday morning when he was heard on a charge of leaving the scene of an accident. Mayor Francis C. Schalip, hearing the case, ordered Willacker to pay for damage to a parked car owned by Clarence C. Garberich. The accident happened at 7 p.m. Friday.

Garden Club Unit Opens New Season

Coils of wire and pliers plus ingenuity and patience were used by Mrs. Silas Anderson, of Bowling Green, to fashion some unique and original table decorations for members of the Green Thumb Unit of the Marion Garden Club and their guests Friday afternoon at Hotel Harding.

The occasion marked the opening of the season for the Green Thumb Unit and the members invited the other units and friends to share the luncheon and program. Guests included Mrs. Evan Jones of Delaware, regional director of the Seventh District, and Mrs. Robert E. White, president of the Marion Garden Center.

Mrs. J. E. Webster presided in the absence of Mrs. Clarence W. Weber, president, and extended a welcome. Centering the U-shaped table was an arrangement of trumpet jonquils, iris and greenery and completing the decorations were sprays of ivy and small crystal vases holding jonquils and greenery. In an informal greeting Mrs. Jones noted a number of dates of interest to Garden Club members. On March 30 there will be a regional meeting at Fredericktown at which Mrs. Frank Herre will discuss "Pitfalls of Flower Shows." In June there will be a tour of gardens in the Mt. Vernon section and there also will be a class conducted for advanced judges at Columbus. Flower shows are scheduled for New York, Cleveland, Toledo and Detroit in the near future. A district project is the planting of pyrocanthia or fire bushes.

Mrs. Harold Smith, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Cecil Davis, sang three numbers, "In My Garden," Firestone, "Trees," Kilmer and "In Luxomberg Gardens."

A huge ball of coils of wire was shown by Mrs. Anderson as a table centerpiece and with a little adjustment could be used as a basket for Easter eggs. Crhistmas balls or other arrangements such as vines and flowers. Flower sticks were brought into use as holders for birds, fish and other familiar animals and to illustrate how simply the designs can be worked out, she fashioned a giraffe from an outline in a childrens coloring book. There are different colors of wire and the wire may be painted to suite one's taste she told her audience. She emphasized bringing out the characteristics of animals and suggested that figures be kept small. Candleholders to be used with the cornucopia were displayed and she designed a Christmas tree which also could be used for other occasions such as engagement parties or holidays. Mrs. Anderson is art instructor at Bowling Green State University.

Arrangements were in charge of a hostess committee composed of Mrs. Marvin L. Wilson, chairman, Mrs. P. F. Nichols, Mrs. T. E. Connor, Mrs. E. W. Imbody and Mrs. Frank Thompson.

Southern Australia Hit By Sharp Earth Tremor

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP)—This capital of South Australia and a large area of the state were shaken last night by the region's most violent earth tremor in 50 years.

No casualties were reported. Chimneys and some masonry toppled, windows shattered and walls cracked.

It can cost you three cents or more in gas and wear and tear every time you stop your car and wait for a traffic light to change.

Pertussin does more for coughs of colds because...

It works systemically—stimulates Nature's own cough-easing action. It not only relieves—it loosens sticky phlegm and thus "breaks-up" coughing spells. That's why so many doctors have prescribed PERTUSSIN®
